No. 437

AN ACT

To provide for one additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the Thirty-second Judiciary District.

Thirty-second Judicial District.

Additional law
judge for court of common pleas.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in addition to the judges provided for by existing law, one additional law judge is hereby authorized and provided for the court of common pleas of the Thirty-second Judicial District, who shall possess the same qualifications which are required by the Constitution and laws for the president judge of said district, and who shall hold his office for a like term and by the same tenure, and shall have the same powers, authority, and jurisdiction, and shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, and penalties, and shall receive the same compensation, provided by law for judges of the courts of said judicial district.

Election.

Section 2. At the next municipal election after the passage of this act, the qualified electors of the said Thirty-second Judicial District shall elect, in the manner prescribed by law for the election of a president judge, one competent person, learned in the law, to serve as an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in said thirty-second district, from the first Monday of January, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, for a term of ten years.

Term.

Appointment.

Section 3. The Governor shall, upon the passage of this act, appoint one competent person as additional law judge for the court of common pleas of the Thirty-second Judicial District, to hold office until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight. Vacancies in the office hereby created, whether caused by death, resignation, expiration of term, or otherwise, shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge.

Vacancies.

APPROVED—The 7th day of May, A. D. 1927.
