

No. 93

AN ACT

To repeal an act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred forty-nine), entitled "An act relating to the practice in courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth where the defendant is a chartered corporation."

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred forty-nine), entitled "An act relating to the practice in courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth where the defendant is a chartered corporation" is hereby repealed.

Practice and procedure.

Act of June 24, 1885 (P. L. 149). repealed.

APPROVED—The 5th day of April, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER

No. 94

AN ACT

Authorizing cities of the first class to appropriate money to pay for work previously done, material previously furnished, and services previously rendered, in connection with any public exposition celebrating the sesqui-centennial anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, up to five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be lawful for any city of the first class, by ordinance passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to the city council and approved by the mayor, to appropriate money to pay for work previously done, material previously furnished, or services previously rendered, in connection with any public exposition held in said city to celebrate the sesqui-centennial anniversary of the Declaration of the Independence of the United States of America, whether such work was done, material furnished, or services rendered for, or upon the order of, the municipal authorities of said city, or for, or upon the order of, any agency of said city, or for, or upon the order of, any corporation not for profit incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth, for the purpose of holding or conducting the said exposition, up to the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

Sesqui-centennial exposition.

Philadelphia may appropriate money to pay expenses that have been incurred.

APPROVED—The 6th day of April, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER