AN ACT

Authorizing cities of the first class to negotiate emergency loans for unemployment relief during the present calendar year.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That to meet emergencies occasioned by business depression and unemployment, it shall be lawful for the council of any city of the first class, during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, to authorize the creation of one or more emergency loans, not exceeding in the aggregate three million dollars ($3,000,000), in excess of the emergency borrowing power granted to the council of such cities by the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred eighty-one), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth." The said council shall have additional appropriating power to the extent of the proceeds of such emergency loan or loans. Any such loan or loans shall be negotiated on behalf of the city by the mayor, the city controller, the city solicitor, or any two of them, and shall be upon notes for periods not to extend beyond such year, and shall be repayable out of the income of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one: Provided, however, That unless such loans shall be paid within said year, they shall be included by the city controller in his estimate of liabilities which must be paid out of the receipts of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two before ordinary appropriations may be made therefrom.
