(P. L. 716),

Be it enacted, &c., That paragraph (a) of section nine of the act, approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred nine), entitled "An act relating to the organization, maintenance, and operation of the Department of Banking, and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations, partnerships, unincorporated associations, and individuals, and the assets and liabilities thereof; providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions; and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen, with table of contents," as last amended by the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred sixteen), entitled "An act to amend section nine of the act, approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred nine), entitled 'An act relating to the organization, maintenance, and operation of the Department of Banking, and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations, partnerships, unincorporated associations, and individuals, and the assets and liabilities thereof; providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions; and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen with table of contents,'" is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 9. Maintenance of Department.—

(a) Expenses. All moneys derived by the department from fees, assessments, charges, penalties, and otherwise, shall be paid by the secretary, through the Department of Revenue, into the State Treasury for safe-keeping, and shall, by the State Treasurer, be placed in a separate fund, to be available for the use of the department upon requisition of the secretary. All such moneys, so paid into the State Treasury, are hereby specifically appropriated to the department for the purpose of paying the salaries of the secretary, the deputies, the examiners, [and] the other employes of the department, and such special deputy attorneys general, assistant deputy attorneys general, and attorneys, as may be assigned by the Attorney General to the department or for handling any legal business pertaining to its work, and the expenses of the department, including the rental and furniture of such rooms or quarters as the secretary may deem necessary outside of the Capitol, and for the purchase, through the Department of Property and Supplies, of surety bonds for such officers or employes of the department as may be required to furnish them, supplies, materials, motor vehicles, workmen's compensation insurance covering the officers and employes of the department, and liability insurance covering vehicles purchased out of moneys of said fund and the officers and employes of the department operating said vehicles. In the event that the use of motor vehicles is required only temporarily, then such moneys in the fund are available for the payment to the Department of Property and Supplies, for the use of such motor vehicles on a mileage basis, at such amount per mile as the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, shall determine.

Estimates of the amounts to be expended under this act, from time to time, by the Department of Banking, shall be submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval, as in the case of other appropriations made to administrative departments, boards, and commissions; and it shall be unlawful for the Auditor General to honor any requisition for the expenditure of any moneys out of this appropriation by the Department of Banking in excess of the estimates approved by the Governor. Subject to the foregoing provision, [The] the Auditor General shall, upon requisition of the secretary, from time to time, draw warrants upon the State Treasurer for the amounts specified in such requisitions, not exceeding, however, the amount in such fund at the time of the making of any such requisition.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one. Effective date.
