

That section one of article nine is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All property taxes shall be uniform, upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, institutions of purely public charity, and real and personal property owned, occupied and used by any branch, post or camp of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines. Uniformity shall not be required in the case of inheritance and other excise taxes, but all such taxes shall be levied and collected under general laws.
