Section 7, act of
April 27, 1927
(P. L. 465).
amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section seven of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty-five), entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed, or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class, and second class A, by requiring certain construction and ways of egress, equipment, and maintenance; providing for the licensing of projectionists; requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and, in certain cases, by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class; providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and repealing certain acts," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. Licensing of Projectionists.—No person shall be permitted to project any motion picture, either theatrical or non-theatrical, until he has obtained a license from the Department of Labor and Industry, after passing an examination prescribed by the said department, for which fees shall be charged as hereinafter provided; and no person shall be permitted in any projection room during any performance, except licensed projectionists, apprentice projectionists, the manager or owner of the theater, or authorized officials of the Department of Labor and Industry. Any license may be suspended or revoked for due cause, but no license shall be revoked until the projectionist or apprentice projectionist has been granted a hearing before the Secretary of Labor and Industry.

Every application for examination as a projectionist shall be accompanied by a fee of two dollars ($2.00). If the applicant is successful, a certificate of competency and a license shall be issued upon payment of an additional fee of five dollars ($5.00) for projectionists of theatrical or commercial motion pictures, or a fee of two dollars ($2.00) for projectionists of non-theatrical motion pictures. There shall be no examination fee required from apprentice projectionists, but there shall be a license fee of three dollars ($3.00) required, the same to accompany application from the apprentice projectionist. For the annual renewal of license for a theatrical or commercial projectionist, there shall be a fee of five dollars ($5.00) charged, the same to accompany the application for renewal of license, and, for non-theatrical projectionists, the renewal fee shall be two dollars ($2.00). The renewal fee for apprentice license shall be one dollar ($1.00). All fees shall be paid to the Department of Labor and Industry and by the said department paid to the State Treasurer, through the Department of Revenue, for the use of the Commonwealth.

APPROVED—The 24th day of May, A. D. 1933.
