AN ACT

To amend section eleven of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand five hundred eighteen), entitled "An act regulating the construction, equipment, maintenance, operation and inspection of elevators outside of cities of the first and second and second A classes; granting certain authority to and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry; providing penalties for violations of this act; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act," fixing the fees for the approval of plans of elevators.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section eleven of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand five hundred eighteen), entitled "An act regulating the construction, equipment, maintenance, operation and inspection of elevators outside of cities of the first and second and second A classes; granting certain authority to and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry; providing penalties for violations of this act; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 11. Approval of Plans.—Before any elevator shall be erected and installed, or undergo repairs amounting to one-half or more of the original value of the said elevator, detailed plans and specifications of the said apparatus, in duplicate, shall be submitted to the department for approval. The application for the approval of plans of elevators shall be accompanied by the following fees: Dumb-waiters, five dollars; freight elevators, seven dollars and fifty cents; and passenger elevators, ten dollars. If the said plans are approved, a permit for the erection or repair of such elevator shall be issued by the department, and a final inspection shall be made of the apparatus when installed or repairs completed, before final approval shall be given by the de-

Elevators.

AN ACT

Providing for receipt by the Commonwealth of personal property bequeathed to the Commonwealth; providing for the vesting of title in the Commonwealth of real estate devised to the Commonwealth, the custody, repair, leasing and sale thereof by the Department of Property and Supplies with approval of the Department of Justice; and providing the payment of costs of repair of such property.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That whenever any person heretofore has or hereafter shall bequeath any personal property to the Commonwealth without attaching restrictions as to the use thereof, said bequest, or the proceeds thereof, shall be received by the Department of Revenue and transmitted to the State Treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The Department of Revenue upon the receipt thereof shall have authority to give a receipt therefor, duly acknowledged, to the personal representatives of said decedent.

Section 2. That whenever any person heretofore has or hereafter shall devise any real estate to the Commonwealth, the title to said real estate shall vest in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the custody thereof, until the same shall be sold and conveyed as hereinafter provided, shall be in the Department of Property and Supplies. Said department may dispose of said real estate, upon such terms and conditions, at either public or private sale, as the Secretary of Property and Supplies may deem advisable and the Department of Justice may approve, and, in the event of said sale, the Secretary of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized and directed to execute, acknowledge, and deliver a good and sufficient deed or other appropriate document, approved by the Department of Justice, conveying or transferring the title to said property. The Department of Property and Supplies shall be authorized to lease said real estate, upon such terms and conditions as shall be approved by the Department of Justice, during the period prior to the sale thereof. All moneys received from the sale or leasing of said real estate shall be paid into the general fund in the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue. Said Department of Property and Supplies shall have authority to make all necessary repairs to said real estate prior to the sale thereof, and the costs of said repairs shall be paid out of the appropriation to
