

solidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 265. Sunday Fishing [Prohibited] Lawful, Exception. It is [unlawful] lawful to fish in any of the waters wholly within or on the boundaries of this Commonwealth for any species of fish [or with any device] during the open season therefor with not more than two rods and two lines and one hand line with not more than three hooks attached to either line, on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, if the consent of the owner or lessee of the land, abutting on a stream or body of water and of the bed thereunder where the fishing is done, has first been secured, but no such consent shall be required to fish in the manner above provided in a stream or body of water on State owned or Federal lands, nor in a river or body of water the bed of which is publicly owned, except where the fishing is done from abutting land privately owned, in which case the consent of the owner or lessee shall first have been secured. It is unlawful to fish on any Sunday in any other manner than hereinbefore provided, or in streams and waters contrary to the provisions of this section. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall on conviction, as provided in chapter fourteen of this act, be subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Sunday fishing permitted upon certain conditions.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

When effective.

AN ACT

To enable cities of the first, second, and second class A, incorporated towns, boroughs, and townships of the second class, to govern and regulate by ordinance the construction, alteration, repairs, occupation, maintenance, sanitation, lighting, ventilation, water supply, toilet facilities, drainage, use and inspection of all buildings and land appurtenant thereto; providing for the enforcement of such ordinances; and repealing existing laws.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That, in addition to other remedies provided by law, and in order to promote the public health, safety, morals, and the general welfare, all cities of the first, second, and second class A, incorporated towns, boroughs, and townships of the second class in this Commonwealth are hereby authorized and empowered to enact and enforce suitable ordinances to govern and regulate the construction, alteration, repairs, occupation, maintenance, sanitation, lighting, ventilation, water supply, toilet facilities, drainage, use and inspection of all buildings and to the sanitation and inspection of land appurtenant thereto, and the said ordinances may provide proper penalties not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for the violation of their provisions.

Section 2. In case any building or structure is constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted or maintained, or any building or land is used in violation of any ordinance enacted under authority conferred hereby, the corporate authorities of any city of the first, second, and second class A, incorporated town, borough, or township of the second class, in addition to the penalties provided by ordinances enacted herewith, may institute appropriate actions or proceedings at law or in equity to prevent and restrain such unlawful construction, reconstruction, alteration, repairs, conversion, maintenance, or use and to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, and to prevent the occupancy of said building or structure.

Section 3. The ordinances enacted pursuant to this act shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of any statute governing the same matter, but all regulations prescribed by such ordinances which are additional or supplementary to the statute law, and not inconsistent therewith, or enacted for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the statute law, shall be valid and binding.

Section 4. The following acts are hereby repealed:

The act approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred and sixty-four), entitled "An act to enable cities, incorporated towns, boroughs, and townships of the first class to govern and regulate by ordinance the construction, alteration, repairs, occupation, maintenance, sanitation, lighting, ventilation, water supply, toilet facilities, drainage, use and inspection of all buildings used for human habitation and land appurtenant thereto; and providing for the enforcement of such ordinances.

The act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand sixty-three), entitled "An act creating in cities of the first class a Bureau of Building Inspection; regulating the erection, enlargement, alteration, repair, moving, removal, demolition and inspection of buildings and other structures, and the erection, encroachment, extension, repair, inspection, and use of party walls; defining certain words and terms used; repealing conflicting legislation; and providing penalties for violations of this act."

AN ACT

To amend section three of the act, approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-two), entitled "An act to amend, revise, consolidate, and change the laws relating to bonus, and providing for the imposition, computation, and collection of bonus for State purposes on the capital stock, stated capital, or capital of domestic corporations, banks, and trust companies, and certain partnerships," exempting credit unions from the provisions of the act.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section three of the act, approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-two), entitled "An act to amend, revise, consolidate, and change the laws relating to bonus, and providing for the imposition, computation, and collection of bonus for State purposes on the capital stock, stated capital, or capital of domestic corporations, banks, and trust companies, and certain partnerships," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Exceptions.—No bonus shall be imposed or be collected, under the provisions of this act, (a) in the case of the incorporation or the increase of the capital stock, of a building and loan association or credit union; or (b) from any corporation named in the first class, of section two of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-three), entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," which does not have any capital stock; or (c) upon any capital stock upon which a bonus has been heretofore paid under laws repealed by this act, or which was not liable for the payment of bonus under then existing laws.

In the case of any corporation issuing shares of stock without nominal or par value, no increase in the number of outstanding shares, without nominal or par value, shall warrant the imposition of any bonus, unless there shall be an increase in the stated capital of the corporation issuing such shares; and, if there be such increase in stated capital, the bonus shall be imposed and computed upon the amount of such increase only.

Bonus.

Section 3, act of April 20, 1927 (P. L. 322), amended.

Exceptions.
