

No. 129

AN ACT

To amend section seven of the act, approved the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred twenty-three, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three—thirty-four), entitled "An act providing compensation to certain persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the World War, the war between the United States and Spain, the China Relief Expedition, or in the Philippines or Guam; providing the method of making payment to representatives of persons who, because of death or incapacity, cannot personally receive compensation; imposing certain duties on the Adjutant General; making an appropriation; and repealing inconsistent legislation; and providing penalties," as amended, extending the time during which application may be filed for veterans' compensation.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section seven of the act, approved the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred twenty-three, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three—thirty-four), entitled "An act providing compensation to certain persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the World War, the war between the United States and Spain, the China Relief Expedition, or in the Philippines or Guam; providing the method of making payment to representatives of persons who, because of death or incapacity, cannot personally receive compensation; imposing certain duties on the Adjutant General; making an appropriation; and repealing inconsistent legislation; and providing penalties," as amended by the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred forty-eight), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 7. Application for compensation shall be made to the Adjutant General on such forms, and in such manner, as he shall prescribe.

All applications shall be made (1) personally by the veteran; or (2) in case of death or mental incompetency preventing the making of a personal application, then by such representative of the veteran as the Adjutant General shall, by regulation, prescribe. An application made by a representative, other than one authorized by such regulation, shall be held void.

The Adjutant General shall not accept or consider any application filed with him after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and [thirty-eight] forty.

APPROVED—The 29th day of April, A. D. 1937.
