AN ACT

To further amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by changing the method of computing reimbursement to be made to school districts for the payment of high school tuition.

Public school system.

Section 1711-A, act of May 18, 1911 (P. L. 309), as amended by section 38, act of May 29, 1931 (P. L. 243), further amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one thousand seven hundred and eleven-A of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," as last amended by section thirty-eight of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred forty-three), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Reimbursements of certain districts for high school tuition.

Section 1711-A. The Commonwealth shall reimburse a school district, with a true valuation of assessable property per teacher of less than one hundred thousand dollars, for high school tuition, when such district is required to pay tuition for pupils attending high school in another district: Provided, That the percentage of the minimum salaries of teachers paid by the Commonwealth is higher in the school district where the pupils reside than in the district where they attend high school. The amount of State reimbursement for high school tuition shall be the percentage of such tuition as is equal to the excess in the percentage of teachers salaries paid by the Commonwealth in the district where the pupils reside over the percentage of teachers salaries paid by the Commonwealth in the district where the pupils attend: Provided, That the amount paid by the Commonwealth to a school district for the tuition of any high school pupil shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20.00) a year.

Proviso.

Proviso.

After the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the first paragraph of this section shall no longer apply, but the Commonwealth shall reimburse each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or less, sixty per centum (60%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), but not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), fifty-five per centum (55%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), but not more than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), fifty per centum (50%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), but not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), forty-five per centum (45%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), but not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), forty per centum (40%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), but not more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), thirty-five per centum (35%) of the expenditure for high school tuition; and each school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), but not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), thirty per centum (30%) of the expenditure for high school tuition.*
