

an extent as to incapacitate for the performance of duties of an optometrist, or the advertising of prices for professional services or glasses or other appurtenances used in the practice of the profession of optometry. The certificate of licensure of any person convicted of a violation of section two of this act shall be ipso facto revoked.

Any person who is the holder of a certificate of licensure, or who is an applicant for examination for a certificate of licensure, against whom is preferred any charge, shall be furnished by the board with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a hearing before the board, at which hearing, he may be represented by counsel. At such hearing witnesses may be examined for and against the accused respecting the said charges, which examination shall be conducted in the manner usually followed in the taking of testimony before commissions in this Commonwealth. The suspension of a certificate of licensure, by reason of the use of stimulants or narcotics, may be revoked when the holder thereof shall have been adjudged by the said board to be cured and capable of practicing optometry. The revocation or suspension for any other cause of a certificate of licensure may be removed at such time as it shall appear to the board to be just and proper to do so.

Section 5. Section twelve of said act, as amended by section four of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred fifty-nine), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 12. The provisions of this act shall not apply to the physicians or surgeons practicing under authority of license issued, under the laws of this Commonwealth, for the practice of medicine or surgery, or person selling spectacles and eyeglasses but who do not assume, directly or indirectly, to adapt them to the eye, nor neither practice or profess to practice optometry.

Section 6. The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

APPROVED—The 25th day of May, A. D. 1937.

GEORGE H. EARLE

No. 221

AN ACT

Prohibiting industrial police from carrying weapons when not on duty; requiring them to leave the same at place of employment; and prescribing penalties.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be unlawful for any person employed as an industrial police to carry any firearm or other weapon except when on duty

Charges.

Copy of complaint.

Hearing.

Revocation of suspension.

Section 12, as amended by section 4. act of May 13, 1925 (P. L. 659), further amended.

Exceptions.

When effective.

Industrial police prohibited from carrying weapons except when on duty.

as such industrial police. All such weapons carried while on duty shall be left at the place of employment of such industrial police.

"Industrial police," defined.

The term "industrial police," as used in this section, shall be construed to mean a police officer, or a person employed in any such capacity, for the protection of its property by the owner or operator of any colliery, furnace, rolling mill, water company, water supply company, water power company, electric light company, electric power company, electric transmission company, mineral, mining or quarrying company, or express company.

Section 2. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall, on summary conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs of prosecution, and in default of payment thereof, shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Section 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

When effective.

Section 4. This act shall become effective ten days after its final enactment.

APPROVED—The 25th day of May, A. D. 1937.

GEORGE H. EARLE

No. 222

AN ACT

Authorizing the Department of Public Instruction to fix the annual expiration date for licenses and registration certificates for professions, trades, and occupations.

Department of Public Instruction.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the Department of Public Instruction shall have the power to fix the day in each year when the licenses or registration certificates for each profession or work at any trade or occupation, for which annual renewals are required, shall expire, and on or before which such renewals shall be secured.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, that are in any way in conflict or inconsistent with this act, or any part thereof, are hereby repealed.

When effective.

Section 3. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 25th day of May, A. D. 1937.

GEORGE H. EARLE