AN ACT

To further amend section fourteen of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand forty-three), entitled "An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," by providing that employes on retirement for superannuation who return to active school service during the present war, shall not upon return to retirement receive any smaller allowance than that received prior to return to active school service.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: School employes.

Section 1. Section fourteen of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand forty-three), entitled "An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," as last amended by the act, approved the fifth day of August, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred ninety-nine), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Act of July 18, 1917, P. L. 1043, section 14, as last amended by act of August 5, 1941, P. L. 799, further amended.

SUPERANNUATION RETIREMENT

Section 14. Retirement for superannuation shall be as follows:

1. Any contributor who is an employe sixty-two years of age or older may retire for superannuation by filing with the retirement board a written statement, duly attested, setting forth at what time, subsequent to the execution of said application, he or she desires to be retired. Said application shall retire said contributor at the time so specified, or, in the discretion of the retirement board, at the end of the school term in which the time so specified occurs.

2. Each and every contributor who has attained or shall attain the age of seventy years shall be retired by the retirement board for superannuation, forthwith, or at the end of the school term in which said age of seventy years is attained.

ALLOWANCE ON SUPERANNUATION
RETIREMENT

3. On retirement for superannuation a contributor who is an employe shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An employe's annuity, which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated deductions; and

(b) A State annuity of one one-hundred-sixtieth (1/160) of his or her final salary for each year of service; and

(c) In addition thereto, if a present employe, a further State annuity of one one-hundred-sixtieth (1/160) of his or her final salary for each year of prior service, as certified to said present employe in the certificate issued to him or her by the retirement board under the provisions of section [ten] eleven of this act.

4. Any person sixty-two years of age or older who was a class-room teacher, principal, supervising principal, or superintendent in the public schools of Pennsylvania for at least twenty years, and who separated from school service for any reason prior to the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and who was not thereafter engaged in school service, except temporarily, for not more than one whole school year; or any person who was a class-room teacher, principal, supervising principal, or superintendent in the public schools of Pennsylvania for at least fourteen years, and who separated from school service because of physical or mental disability prior to the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and who still is unable to teach because of such disability, shall receive a State compensation equal to one-eightieth of his or her final salary for each year of school service, but not less than twenty dollars ($20) per month, if such former teacher shall agree, in writing, and hold himself or herself ready under the direction of the board of school directors, to advise and counsel with school officials, to visit and counsel with new teachers, to act as substitute teacher when able, to examine and report on public school work, to visit pupils' homes in the interests of child welfare, to attend educational conferences and addresses, and to be concerned with other educational work as may be deemed necessary and helpful to community-school interests. The General Assembly shall from time to time appropriate moneys sufficient to make payments under this subsection: Provided, That any teacher who is entitled to receive State compensation hereunder, and who is receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of a local teachers' retirement system, shall receive from the Commonwealth only the difference between the compensation to which such teacher would otherwise be entitled under the provisions of this subsection and the annual amount received by such teacher from such local teachers' retirement system.

14 years' employment sufficient for retirement for disability.

Any employe on retirement for superannuation who returns to active school service during the continuation of World War II, shall not, upon return to retirement for superannuation, receive any smaller retirement allowance than that received prior to such return to active school service.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment. Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 13th day of April, A. D. 1943.
