

authorized so to do by the board upon said taxable person if he or she can be found in the county or may be mailed to him or her or served upon an adult person residing upon the property in question in case the taxable person cannot be found in the county.

Where posting of notice is sufficient.

When no service is made upon the taxable person or upon an adult person residing upon the property assessed, said notice shall be deemed to have been properly served if tacked or conspicuously posted upon the property assessed and a copy thereof mailed to the last known address of the taxable person.

Defective service cured by granting a rehearing.

No defect in service of any such notice shall be sufficient ground for setting aside any assessment so made, but upon proof thereof being made, the taxable person shall have the right to a rehearing before the board relative to said assessment and to appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas as hereinafter provided.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 22nd day of April, A. D. 1943.

AN ACT

To amend section five hundred thirty of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred three), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," providing for the filing of the treasurer's bond.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Act of May 1, 1933, P. L. 103, section 530, amended.

Section 1. Section five hundred thirty of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred three), entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 530. Bond.—The treasurer appointed by the board of township supervisors, if an individual, shall give bond, with at least two sufficient sureties or a surety company to be approved by the auditors of the township, conditioned that the treasurer shall well and truly account for and pay over all moneys collected or received for the township, and all moneys paid by the State and received by him, only upon a written order signed by two members of the board of supervisors; for the delivery to his successor in office of all books, papers, and documents; for the payment to him of any balance of money belonging to the township that may remain in his hands; and for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The bond of the treasurer shall be filed with the auditors of the township.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

AN ACT

To add section six to the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred), entitled "An act providing that appointive officers and employes, employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service, or by any department, bureau, commission, or office thereof, or by any county, municipality, township, or school district, shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment, enrollment, or draft in the military or naval service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof, in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of such officers and employes during the period of their service in the Army or Navy; directing that one-half of the salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives, children, or parents, and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, be paid during the term of their service in the Army or Navy to such dependents; authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes, respectively, and providing for the compensation of such substitutes," saving to members of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force their right to increases in pay and certain advancements in rank.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred), entitled "An act providing that appointive officers and employes, employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service, or by any department, bureau, commission, or office thereof, or by any county, municipality, township, or school district, shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment, enrollment, or draft in the military or naval service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof, in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of
