

thirty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 834), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 30. Legal Sizes.—No person shall have in possession, except as in this article otherwise provided, any:

(a) Charr, commonly called brook trout, or any species of trout except lake trout, less than six inches in length;

(b) Black bass, or small mouth bass, or large mouth bass, otherwise called Oswego, green, or yellow bass, less than nine inches in length;

(c) Pike-perch, otherwise called wall-eyed pike, or Susquehanna salmon, less than twelve inches in length;

(d) Pickerel, less than [twelve] fifteen inches in length;

(e) [Muscallonge] Muskellunge, western and northern pike, less than twenty-two inches in length;

(f) Rockfish or striped-bass, less than twenty inches in length.

APPROVED—The 12th day of April, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

No. 24

AN ACT

To amend section 714 of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by further regulating the possession and transportation of big game.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

"The Game Law."

Section 1. Section 714 of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 714, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended.

Section 714. Transporting Big Game.—It is unlawful for any person or for any common carrier, or his or its *agent, to ship or transport big game of any kind, unless the carcass shall in all instances have attached thereto a card or marker, bearing, in English, the name and address of the owner, his license and county number if the license bears such number with the name of the county wherein the same was killed.

* "agents" in original.

It is unlawful for any person to cut up big game and ship [, transport, carry or convey] any part thereof, or for any common carrier, or his or its agent, to transport any such part, unless each division thereof shipped uncovered, or each package, container, or baggage of every description containing any part of such game, shall have attached a card or marker bearing, in English, the name of the owner of such game, with his home address, his license and county number if the license bears such number, and the character of the contents of such package, so that such contents may be determined by an outside inspection thereof.

Any individual may possess, transport, carry or convey an unmarked part of a big game carcass that has been cut up, but such person shall, upon request of any law enforcement officer, furnish the name and address of the person killing the big game animal and any other information required to properly establish legal possession in such person.

APPROVED—The 12th day of April, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

—
No. 25

AN ACT

Validating certain deeds, bonds and mortgages and trust indentures executed and delivered by nonprofit corporations, unless the validity thereof is raised by legal proceedings within a prescribed period of time.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Whenever any nonprofit corporation of this Commonwealth, incorporated under or now subject to the provisions of the Nonprofit Corporation Law, has heretofore executed and delivered in good faith, for value received, any deed of conveyance, bond and mortgage or trust indenture without first having received authority for the execution thereof from the membership of such corporation in strict compliance with the provisions of section six hundred six of said act, in that some of the members thereof voted by proxy or by writing and not in person, such deed, bond and mortgage or trust indenture is hereby ratified, confirmed and validated, unless a *proceeding in law or equity attacking the validity of such deed, bond and mortgage or trust indenture shall be instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction within one year after the execution of such instrument or within one year after the effective date of this act.

Nonprofit corporations.

Certain deeds, bonds and mortgages and trust indentures executed and delivered by nonprofit corporations validated: exceptions.

* "proceedings" in original.