

Eighth. The provisions of this section shall be severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional, the decision of the court shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this section. It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this section would have been adopted by the General Assembly had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment. Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 28th day of June, A. D. 1951.

AN ACT

To add subsection (e) to section 501 of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by providing for an open season for hunting deer with bows and arrows, requiring a special license therefor, and fixing fees.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: "The Game Law."

Section 1. Section 501 of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," is hereby amended by adding, at the end thereof, a new subsection to read as follows: Section 501, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended by adding, at end thereof, a new subsection (e).

Section 501. Open Seasons.—

* * * * *

(e) Open Season For Hunting Deer with Bows and Arrows. In each year in which there is an open season for hunting deer there shall, in addition, be an open season for hunting deer with bows and arrows exclusively, unless otherwise declared by resolution of the commission. The duration and time of such additional open season, together with the sex and description of the deer which may be lawfully killed, shall each year be fixed by the commission. During any such additional open season, it shall be unlawful to hunt for, kill or attempt to kill, any deer, without a special license as hereinafter prescribed, or with any weapon other than a bow and arrow, or with any bow other than a long bow controlled without aid of mechanical means, or with any arrow with any explosive in the head or shaft.

No person shall hunt for or kill any deer during such additional open archery season with bow and arrow without first having secured a hunting license and, in addition thereto, a special archery license from the Department of Revenue, the fee for which is hereby fixed at two dollars. Such special license shall be attached to the hunter's license certificate for the current year and shall be countersigned in ink diagonally across its face by the licensee before hunting in the open season herein provided for. Any person securing a special archery license under the provisions of this subsection shall also be entitled to hunt for and kill game of any kind during a lawful open season with bow and arrow on the special archery preserves provided for under section nine hundred thirty-six, without securing the special permit required in that section; and any person securing the special archery preserve permit under the provisions of section nine hundred thirty-six shall be entitled to hunt for and kill deer with bow and arrow during the additional open archery season provided for in this subsection, without securing the special archery license herein provided for.
