

Section 2. Section 214 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 214, said act, amended.

Section 214. [Review of Action by Department.— Any person aggrieved by any action of the department relating to his license, or by rule or regulation adopted and promulgated by the department, shall have the right to file a complaint with the department and to have a hearing thereon before the department. Such hearings shall be conducted and the decision of the department on the issue involved shall be rendered in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Agency Law, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (Pamphlet Laws 1388) and its amendments, relating to adjudication procedure. Any person aggrieved by any adjudication of the department shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County and have a judicial review of such adjudication, within the time and in the manner and with the same effect as is provided by the Administrative Agency Law and the Rules of Civil Procedure promulgated by the Supreme Court for judicial review of adjudication of agencies of the Commonwealth.] Revocation of License.—The department shall have the power, after hearing, to revoke any license issued under this act, whenever it shall appear that the licensed institution is being operated in violation of the laws of this Commonwealth or rules or regulations thereunder pertaining to the operation of mental hospitals, or whenever the department shall determine that the holder of the license would not be qualified to receive a license if application for such license were made under section 212 of this act.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the department in revoking his license may appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, the jurisdiction of which shall be limited to a consideration of whether or not the department abused its discretion in revoking such license.

APPROVED—The 2nd day of January, A. D. 1952.
