AN ACT

To amend the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred five (Pamphlet Laws 518), entitled "An act making an appropriation for the erection of a home or school for indigent orphans, to be called the Thaddeus Stevens Industrial and Reform School of Pennsylvania, in which school provision shall be made for giving instruction in reading, writing, arithmetic, drawing, duties of citizenship, elementary manual training, the elements of farming, and other requisite branches," by further providing for the course of instruction and the admission of students at such institution, and authorizing certain tuition charges for its use.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Thaddeus Stevens Industrial and Reform School.

Section 8, act of
May 11, 1905,
P. L. 518, amended.

Section 1. Section 8 of the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred five (Pamphlet Laws 518), entitled "An act making an appropriation for the erection of a home or school for indigent orphans, to be called the Thaddeus Stevens Industrial and Reform School of Pennsylvania, in which school provision shall be made for giving instruction in reading, writing, arithmetic, drawing, duties of citizenship, elementary manual training, the elements of farming, and other requisite branches," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. There shall be received into the institution indigent [orphans'] orphan boys or other deserving boys, from the State of Pennsylvania, [under the age of fourteen] above the age of fifteen years, whose admission may be applied for under such regulations as the Board of Trustees may adopt. In considering such admission no preference shall be shown on account of race or color or religion. [Proper provisions shall be made for giving instruction in reading, writing, arithmetic, drawing, duties of citizenship, elementary manual training, and the elements of farming, and such other branches as may be deemed requisite for a good English education.] The course of instruction shall be the equivalent of a four year public high school course and shall include (1) vocational education of less than college grade, for the purpose of fitting pupils to pursue effectively a recognized profitable employment, and (2) evening or other classes providing such instruction for persons seventeen years of age or over who have left full-time school.

Admission to school.

Course of instruction.

Said act amended by adding, after section 8 thereof, a new section 8.1.

Admission of nonresident students.

Section 2. Said act is hereby amended by adding, after section 8 thereof, a new section to read as follows:

Section 8.1. In addition to resident students, the board of trustees may admit for study at the school part-time or full-time nonresident students, and shall fix and charge tuition rates for such nonresident students. All money collected as tuition by the institution shall be paid into the General Fund and credited to the appropriations made to the institution.

APPROVED—The 14th day of January, A. D. 1952.
