

the person who weighed the manure and issued the certificate. The certificate of weight shall be made out in ink or indelible pencil and be at least in triplicate form. The original copy shall be delivered to the purchaser of the manure, one copy shall be retained at the place of weighing, and one copy shall be retained by the person making the delivery. Copies retained at the place of weighing shall be subject to inspection by any State, county or city inspector, during business hours, and may be seized for use as evidence. It shall be unlawful to place any foreign matter or use any water on the manure to increase the weight of said manure at any time before weighing and before delivery is consummated to the actual consumer. It shall be unlawful for any person to issue a false or incorrect certificate of weight or for any person to solicit him to do so, or for any person to issue a certificate of weight which purports to bear his signature and which was not in fact signed by him at the time of weighing, or which expresses a gross tare or net weight not ascertained by him. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply (i) where manure is transported between two farms or parcels of land owned by the same person or persons, or (ii) at any time when manure is sold or transported in lots of two ton or less by contract between two persons and used exclusively by the purchaser and not offered for resale, or (iii) at any time when manure is delivered in carload lots to one purchaser and accepted as to weight by the purchaser on the bill of lading or other voucher issued by the carrier.
