PREFATORY NOTE

Your attention is called to Section 71, of the Act of May 28, 1937, P. L. 1019, which provides as follows:

“The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, in printing amendatory laws, cause to be printed the section or part of the law only as reenacted. In the section or part of the law reenacted, the secretary shall cause to be printed between brackets [ ], the words, phrases, or provisions of the existing law, if any, which have been stricken out or eliminated by the adoption of the amendment, and he shall cause to be printed in ITALICS all new words, phrases or provisions, if any, which have been inserted into or added to the law by the passage of such amendment.

“In ascertaining the correct reading, status and interpretation of an amendatory law, the matter inserted within brackets shall be omitted, and the matter in italics shall be read and interpreted as part of the law.”

Secretary of the Commonwealth.
