AN ACT

Authorizing justices of the peace, aldermen and magistrates to perform official duties of other justices of the peace, aldermen and magistrates in the same county during certain periods of illness and vacation; and providing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Justices of the peace, aldermen and magistrates may act in place of another within the same county under certain circumstances.

Section 1. In any period of thirty consecutive days within any calendar year during which a justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate is incapable of performing any of his official duties due to illness and, in only one period of thirty consecutive days within any calendar year during which a justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate is unable to perform any of his official duties due to a vacation, any other justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate residing within the same county may perform in his stead any duties of the justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate when requested to do so by the person in lieu of whom he acts.

Required contents of official papers and records.

Section 2. All official papers and records concerning which one justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate acts for another, pursuant to the provisions of section one of this act, shall contain a statement together with the signature and seal of the justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate acting for another showing the date on which the act was performed, the name of the official in whose stead he is acting, the date on which he commenced acting for the other, and the date when his commission expires.

Validity of official actions.

Section 3. All actions or duties performed, pursuant to the provisions of section one of this act, shall be valid to all intents and purposes to the same extent as if performed by the ill or vacationing justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate in whose stead another acted.

Section 4. The provisions of this act shall not be deemed to enlarge the jurisdiction granted to justices of the peace, aldermen or magistrates by other acts of Assembly.

Jurisdiction.

Section 5. Any justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate who performs the duties of another for any period of time longer than prescribed by section one of this act or who fails to enter on official papers and records, statements over his signature and seal as prescribed by section two of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

Misdemeanor ;
penalties.
