

Section 857.1. Offers for Sale of Merchandise, Commodities or Services.—(a) Whoever by any means advertises or offers for sale to the general public any merchandise, commodity, service, or thing, with intent not to sell, or with intent not to sell at the price advertised or offered for sale, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000), or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding six (6) months, or both.

(b) In any prosecution under this section, except in cases of innocent mistakes or typographical errors, the refusal by any person or any employe, agent, or servant, of any person to sell or the refusal to sell at the price advertised or offered for sale any merchandise, commodity, service, or thing, advertised or offered for sale to the general public, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section: Provided, That this subsection shall not be applicable when a person advertises or offers for sale any merchandise, commodity, service, or thing, and clearly sets out in such advertisement or offer, by quantity or number, that he has a specific limited quantity of such merchandise, commodity, service, or thing, for sale, and when at the time of such advertisement or offer such person did in fact have at least such quantity or amount for sale.
