AN ACT

Amending the act of July eleven, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 769), entitled "An act to regulate the importation into the State of Pennsylvania of dependent, delinquent, or defective children; and providing a penalty for the violation thereof," authorizing use of forfeited bond for the further placing of children.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 2, act of July 11, 1917, P. L. 769, amended June 19, 1939, P. L. 436, further amended.

Section 1. Section two, act of July eleven, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 769), entitled "An act to regulate the importation into the State of Pennsylvania of dependent, delinquent, or defective children; and providing a penalty for the violation thereof," amended June nineteen, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 436), is amended to read:

Importation into Pennsylvania.

Section 2. Such person, corporation, association, or institution, before bringing or sending, or causing to be brought or sent, any such child into this State, shall first give an indemnity bond in favor of the State of Pennsylvania, or to the agency the Secretary of Welfare may designate, or both, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to be approved by the Department of Welfare and such other guarantee to the Department of Welfare as it may require, conditioned as follows: That they will not send or bring or cause to be brought or sent, into this State, any child that is incorrigible, or one that is of unsound mind or body; that they will, at once, upon the placement of such child, report to the Department of Welfare its name and age, and the name and residence of the person with whom it is placed; that if any such child shall, before it reaches the age of twenty-one years, become a public charge, they will, within thirty days after written notice shall have been given them of such fact by the Department of Welfare, remove such child from the State; and if any such dependent child shall be convicted of crime or misdemeanor and imprisoned, within three years from the time of its arrival within the State, such person, corporation, association, or institution will remove from the State such child, immediately upon its being released from such imprisonment; and upon failure, after thirty days' notice and demand to remove any such child who shall have either become a public charge as aforesaid, or who shall have been convicted as aforementioned, in either event, such person, corporation, association, or institution shall at once and thereby forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars as a penalty therefor, to be recovered upon such bond by a suit in the name of the State of Pennsylvania, which sums or any part thereof collected by the State may be assigned by the Secretary of Welfare to the agency designated by the Secretary of Welfare to place the child elsewhere and, if the bond is given in the name of an agency other than the State of Pennsylvania, the agency may proceed to accomplish forfeiture of the entire sum, or part thereof, and collect the entire sum, or part thereof, under the terms of the bond and utilize the funds forfeited or collected to place the child elsewhere; that they will place or cause to be placed each of such dependent children under written contract, which will secure to such child a proper home, and will make the person so receiving such child responsible for its proper care, education, and training; that they will properly supervise the care and training of each such children, and that each of such children shall be visited, at least twice a year, by a responsible agent of the person, corporation, association, or institution so placing or causing to be placed such child as herein provided; that they will make, to the said depart-
