

or irrevocable; and upon the transfer of any such property, any such nonprofit corporation shall be relieved of all liability for the investment and reinvestment thereof. Such corporate trustee shall pay, at least semi-annually or at more frequent intervals if so agreed, the net income from such property to such nonprofit corporation, for use and application to the purpose or purposes for which it was given in trust to such nonprofit corporation. Any such nonprofit corporation may, by appropriate action of its board of directors or trustees, keep any such investments or fractional interests in any such investments, held by it or made by it, in the name of the corporation or in the name of a nominee of the corporation.

Subsection F, section 318, act of May 5, 1933, P. L. 289, added May 9, 1947, P. L. 196, amended.

Section 2. Subsection F of section 318 of the act, added May nine, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 196), is amended to read:

Section 318. Common Trust Funds.—

* * * * *

F. The corporation shall designate clearly upon its records the names of the trusts or funds on behalf of which such corporation, as fiduciary or otherwise, owns a participation in any such common trust fund and the extent of the interest of the trust or fund therein. No such trust or fund shall be deemed to have individual ownership of any asset in such common trust fund, but shall be deemed to have the proportionate undivided interest in the common trust fund. The ownership of the individual assets comprising any such common trust fund shall be solely in the corporation as fiduciary or otherwise. Any such nonprofit corporation may, by appropriate action of its board of directors or trustees, keep investments in any such common trust fund established and maintained by it in the name of the corporation or in the name of a nominee of the corporation.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May one, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1005), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to and regulating tractors and their operation; providing for their registration by the Department of Revenue upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of tractors; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of tractors; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation; and providing for refunds", authorizing the issuance of special permits to dealers for the operation or movement of over-size, self-propelled combines and fixing fees for such permits.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: The Tractor Code.

Section 1. Section 511, act of May one, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1005), known as "The Tractor Code," amended June thirty, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 965), is amended to read: Section 511, act of May 1, 1929, P. L. 1005, amended June 30, 1951, P. L. 965, further amended.

Section 511. Special Hauling Permits.—The fee for a special hauling permit, which is issued for a single trip and which designates the route to be traversed as provided for in clause (a) of section six hundred and ten, shall be five ($5) dollars and two ($0.02) cents per ton of two thousand (2000) pounds, or fraction thereof, of gross weight of vehicle and load for each mile, or fraction thereof, of length of haul, payable to the authorities issuing such permit.

The annual fee for a special permit, which is issued for the license year and authorizes the operation or movement of heavy quarry equipment and machinery as provided for in clause (b) of section six hundred and ten, shall be ten ($10) dollars.

The fee for a special permit which is issued for the period between the fifteenth day of June and the fifteenth day of December of each year and authorizes the operation or movement of any over-size self-propelled combine as provided for in subclauses (i) and (ii) of clause (c) of section six hundred and ten, shall be ten dollars ($10) for combines not exceeding one hundred fifty (150) inches in width and twenty-five dollars ($25) for combines one hundred fifty-one (151) to one hundred sixty-six (166) inches in width. The fee for a special permit which is issued for an entire year and authorizes the operation or movement of any over-size self-propelled combine as provided for in subclause (iii) of clause (c) of section six hundred and ten, shall be twenty dollars ($20) for combines not exceeding one hundred fifty (150) inches in width and fifty dollars ($50) for combines one hundred fifty-one (151) to one hundred sixty-six (166) inches in width.

Section 610, act of May 1, 1929, P. L. 1005, amended June 30, 1951, P. L. 965, and January 14, 1952, P. L. 1996, further amended.

Section 2. Section 610 of the act, amended June thirty, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 965), and January fourteen, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (Pamphlet Laws 1996), is amended to read:

Section 610. Permits for Excessive Size and Weight.—The Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth and local authorities, in their respective jurisdictions, may, at their discretion, upon application in writing accompanied by the fee provided in this act and good cause being shown therefor, issue special permits, in writing, authorizing the applicant to operate or move upon any highway under the jurisdiction of, and for the maintenance of which the authorities granting the permit are responsible; (a) a tractor of a size and weight exceeding the maximum specified in this act; every such permit shall be issued for a single trip, and shall designate the route to be traversed; (b) any heavy piece of quarry equipment or machinery of a size and weight exceeding the maximum specified by this act across any highway from one part of a quarry to another, or upon the highways connecting by the most direct route any quarries or portion of quarries under the single ownership or operation of such person, this permit to be issued for the license year as provided by this act; no such permit shall be issued for the movement of such equipment or machinery for a distance greater than one-half mile; (c) any over-size self-propelled combine up to one hundred sixty-six (166) inches in width; every such permit shall be issued (i) for the period between the fifteenth day of June and the fifteenth day of December, both inclusive, for the movement of such equipment, during the daylight hours, within a radius of ten (10) miles from the owner's home or farm, or (ii) for the period between the fifteenth day of June and the fifteenth day of December, both inclusive, for the movement of such equipment, during the daylight hours, within a radius of twenty (20) miles from the dealer's place of business, or (iii) for an entire year, for the movement of such equipment, during the daylight hours, within a radius of twenty (20) miles from the dealer's place of business. At other times a permit for the movement of such equipment shall be granted as otherwise herein provided. Any of the above permits shall be subject to such rules and regulations and any other conditions or restrictions, including the obligation on the part of the permittee to restore or replace any section of highway or bridge damaged as a result of such movement, whether or not the same was attributable to negligence on the part of the permittee, as shall be deemed necessary by the authorities granting such permit. Every such permit shall be carried in the vehicle to which it refers; shall be open to inspection by any peace officer or person having collision with the tractor and shall be revocable at any time, at the discretion of the official who issued the same.

Penalty.—Any person operating or moving a tractor or trailer and its load, of a size or weight exceeding the maximum specified in this act, without first having obtained a permit or permits so to do, shall, upon summary conviction before a magistrate, be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty ($50) dollars and in default of the payment thereof, shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days. Penalty.

APPROVED—The 29th day of May, A. D. 1956.
