No. 248

AN ACT

Amending the act of August 6, 1941 (P. L. 861), entitled "An act to create a uniform and exclusive system for the administration of parole in this Commonwealth; establishing the 'Pennsylvania Board of Parole'; conferring and defining its jurisdiction, duties, powers and functions, including the supervision of persons placed upon probation in certain designated cases; providing for the method of appointment of its members; regulating the appointment, removal and discharge of its officers, clerks and employes; dividing the Commonwealth into administrative districts for purposes of parole; fixing the salaries of members of the board and of certain other officers and employes thereof; making violations of certain provisions of this act misdemeanors; providing penalties therefor; and for other cognate purposes, and making an appropriation," removing the ceiling on salaries of the secretary of the board and of district supervisors.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: Pennsylvania Board of Parole.

Section 1. Sections 7 and 11, act of August 6, 1941 (P. L. 861), entitled "An act to create a uniform and exclusive system for the administration of parole in this Commonwealth; establishing the 'Pennsylvania Board of Parole'; conferring and defining its jurisdiction, duties, powers and functions, including the supervision of persons placed upon probation in certain designated cases; providing for the method of appointment of its members; regulating the appointment, removal and discharge of its officers, clerks and employes; dividing the Commonwealth into administrative districts for purposes of parole; fixing the salaries of members of the board and of certain other officers and employes thereof; making violations of certain provisions of this act misdemeanors; providing penalties therefor; and for other cognate purposes, and making an appropriation," amended August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1401), are amended to read: Sections 7 and 11, act of August 6, 1941, P. L. 861, amended August 24, 1951, P. L. 1401, further amended.

Organization of Board of Parole. Section 7. As soon as may be convenient after their appointment the members of the Board of Parole shall meet and organize. They shall appoint a secretary, who shall not be a member of the board who shall hold office at their pleasure, who shall have such powers and perform such duties not inconsistent with any law of this Commonwealth as the board shall prescribe, and who shall receive such compensation as the board shall determine, in conformity with the rules of the Executive Board [, not exceeding six thousand dollars ($6000) per annum]. In the absence or incapacity of the secretary to act the Board of Parole may designate such other person as it may choose to perform temporarily the duties of secretary.

Appointment of district supervisor. Section 11. Each district parole office shall be in charge of a district supervisor who shall be appointed by the board, with the approval of the Governor, and who shall receive such annual salary [, for those where the district includes either a county of the first class or a county of the second class not exceeding seven thousand dollars ($7000), and for those in other districts not exceeding five thousand five hundred dollars ($5500,] as the board shall determine, in conformity with the rules of the Executive Board. Said district supervisor shall be the executive head of the district office to which he shall be appointed and shall have the control, management and direction of all employes of the Board of Parole assigned to said district, subject to the supervision of the board.

Act effective immediately. Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 3rd day of July, A. D. 1957.
