AN ACT

Amending the act of March 6, 1956 (P. L. 1228), entitled, as amended, "An act to provide revenue for Commonwealth purposes by imposing a tax on the sale, use, storage, rental or consumption of certain tangible personal property and utility services herein defined as tangible personal property; providing for licenses, reports and payment of tax, interest and penalties, assessments, collections, liens, reviews and appeals; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, public officers, manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, corporations, partnerships, associations and individuals and making an appropriation," excluding from the tax the sale or use of supplies and materials to be used in a contract with a municipal authority.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: Selective Sales and Use Tax Act.

Section 203, act of March 6, 1956, P. L. 1228, added May 24, 1956, P. L. 1707, amended by adding a new clause (n).

Section 1. Section 203, act of March 6, 1956 (P. L. 1228), known as the "Selective Sales and Use Tax Act," added May 24, 1956 (P. L. 1707), is amended by adding, at the end, a new clause to read:

Section 203. Exclusions from Tax.—The tax imposed by section 201 shall not be imposed upon

* * * * *

(n) The sale at retail or use of supplies and materials to be used exclusively in the fulfillment of a contract for the construction, reconstruction, remodeling, repairing or maintenance of real estate, when such contract was entered into prior to March 7, 1956, between the person who would otherwise be subject to the tax and a municipal authority, incorporated under the "Municipality Authorities Act of 1945": Provided, That notice of a claim of exemption under this clause is received by the department within fifteen days after the effective date of this clause.

Effective date and retroactive effect.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately and its provisions shall be retroactive to March 7, 1956.

APPROVED—The 8th day of July, A. D. 1957.

AN ACT

Amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," providing for records, compensation of teachers, penalties for failure to attend, and audits and reports where in-service education programs replace teachers' meetings, and imposing the expenses thereof on counties.

Public School Code of 1949.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1187, act of March 10, 1949, P. L. 30, amended.

Section 1. Section 1187, act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), known as the "Public School Code of 1949," is amended to read:

Section 1187. Attendance Records and Reports; Expenses of Meeting.—Each county superintendent shall keep a record of all the teachers under his jurisdiction who attend each meeting or each session of the in-service education program, and the number of whole or part days during which each was in attendance. At the close of each meeting or session, the superintendent shall send to the board of school directors of each school district under his jurisdiction a statement of the names of the
