the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," changing the name of the Pennsylvania State Police Training School to the Pennsylvania State Police Academy.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Administrative Code of 1929.

Section 1. Section 711, act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," amended April 28, 1943 (P. L. 94), is amended to read:

Section 711, act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, amended April 28, 1943, P. L. 94, further amended.

Section 711. Commissioner of Pennsylvania State Police.—The Commissioner of Pennsylvania State Police shall be the head and executive officer of the Pennsylvania State Police. He shall provide, for the members of the State Police Force, suitable uniforms, arms, equipment, and, where it is deemed necessary, horses or motor vehicles, and make rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the Governor, prescribing qualifications prerequisite to, or retention of, membership in the force; for the enlistment, training, discipline, and conduct of the members of the force; for the selection and promotion of such members on the basis of merit; for the filing and hearing of charges against such members, and such other rules and regulations as are deemed necessary for the control and regulation of the State Police Force. The commissioner shall maintain a training school, to be known as the Pennsylvania State Police [Training School] Academy, for the proper instruction of members of the State Police Force, which shall be situated at such place or places as the commissioner, with the approval of the Governor, may determine. It shall also be the duty of the commissioner to establish local headquarters in various places, so as best to distribute the force through the various sections of the Commonwealth where they will be most efficient in carrying out the purposes of this or any other act to preserve the peace, prevent and detect crime and to police the highways.
