sembly when they are in session, the Governor and the Auditor General, when it appears that any appropriation is being expended for purposes other than the purposes for which the appropriation was intended, or if it appears that any statutory restrictions or provisions are being violated.

- (4) The committee shall make reports, from time to time, to the members of the Legislature and, upon request, to the standing committees of the Senate and House of Representatives with respect to any of its findings or recommendations of a fiscal nature. It shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. The committee shall make and distribute its final report to the members of the ensuing Legislature not later than ten days after the convening of the regular session of the Legislature.
- (5) The committee may issue subpoenas, under the hand and seal of the chairman, to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of any papers, books, accounts, documents and testimony touching matters of a fiscal nature properly being inquired into by the committee, to administer oaths, and to cause the deposition of witnesses, either residing within or without the State, to be taken in the manner prescribed by laws for taking depositions in civil actions.
- (6) Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to comply with any subpoena issued in behalf of the committee, or refuses to testify to any matters regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.
- (7) Each witness who appears before the committee by its order, other than an officer or employe of the Commonwealth, shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided for witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, which shall be audited and paid out of the funds of the committee upon the presentation of proper vouchers signed by such witness and approved by the chairman or vice-chairman of the committee.
- (8) The Legislative Budget and Finance Committee is authorized to appoint an officer to be known as the legislative analyst, and to fix his compensation, who shall be the chief executive officer of the committee and assist in its duties, and shall compile information for the committee. The committee is authorized to select and employ clerical, legal, accounting and other personnel that it may deem necessary in the performance of its duties, and the compensation and salaries shall be fixed by the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee.

Duties of legislative analyst.

Section 4. The duties of the legislative analyst shall be as follows:

- (1) By continuous review of State expenditures, revenues and analysis of budget, to ascertain the facts, compare cost, work-load and other data, and make recommendations concerning the State's budget and revenue of the departments, boards, commissions and agencies of the Commonwealth.
- (2) Such other duties as shall be assigned to him by the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee.

Compensation.

Section 5. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for their expenses incurred while attending sessions of the committee or meetings of any subcommittee of the committee, or while engaged on other committee business authorized by the committee, and in going to and coming from meetings of the committee or its subcommittees or for travel and other committee business when authorized by the committee.

Notice of report to affected agency.

Section 6. Before any written report is made by the committee, the department, officer or agency of the government involved therein shall be afforded an opportunity to comment, and said comments shall be attached to said report.

Appropriation.

Section 7. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby specifically appropriated to the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee to pay the expenses of the members of the committee and for the salary or compensation of the legislative analyst, clerical and other hire and incidental expenses.

Effective date.

Section 8. This act shall take effect the day following sine die adjournment of the present session of the General Assembly.

APPROVED—The 4th day of August, A. D. 1959.
