

regulated shooting grounds established in areas where wild ringneck pheasants, and bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission, do not thrive and normally produce a shootable supply of such birds, or which are commercially operated and are open to public use, shall be fixed by the commission without regard to the general state-wide open season for small game, the period so fixed to be certified to the holders of such permits at least thirty days in advance of the season.

(c) The period for taking domestically produced mallard or black ducks less than two generations removed from the wild on all regulated shooting grounds, shall conform with the season established for waterfowl hunting by Federal regulations in effect for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

All species of game other than those specified, found on the premises covered by such regulated shooting grounds permits, may be taken on said premises only under the general provisions of the law governing seasons, bag limits, etc.

Every person hunting on such regulated shooting grounds or participating in a shoot held under a regulated shooting grounds permit shall be possessed of a resident or nonresident hunter's license for the current year as required by law.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 2nd day of October, A. D. 1959.

No. 419

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," clarifying the provisions relating to shooting across highways or at wild birds or animals on highways.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Game Law.

Section 1. Section 807, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "The Game Law," is amended to read:

Section 807, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended.

Section 807. Shooting at [Game] Wild Birds or Wild Animals While on Highways.—It is unlawful for any person to shoot at [game] any wild bird or wild animal while it is on a public highway, or a highway open to use or used by the public, or knowingly to shoot across a public highway, or a highway open to use or used by the public, while hunting [for game], unless the line of fire is high enough above the elevation of the highway to preclude any danger to the users thereof.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution.

APPROVED—The 2nd day of October, A. D. 1959.

No. 420

AN ACT

Regulating the conducting and maintaining of burial grounds and cemeteries by natural persons, partnerships and certain unincorporated associations; making certain acts relating thereto unlawful and prescribing penalties.

Burial grounds.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Natural person, partnership or unincorporated association, maintaining a burial ground or cemetery, regulated as to permanent lot care fund.

Section 1. (a) No natural person, partnership or unincorporated association shall hereafter establish a public or private burial ground or cemetery, or dispose or make sale of any burial lot therein, without first causing to be deposited in a bank and trust company, trust company or national banking association having fiduciary powers, a sum of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00), as a permanent lot care fund for the perpetual care, maintenance and preservation of the burial lots and grounds and the repair and renewal of the buildings and property connected with and forming a part of the burial ground or cemetery and shall designate such banking institution as trustee of such fund.

(b) Any natural person, partnership or unincorporated association:

(1) Which is conducting or maintaining a public or private burial grounds or cemetery on the effective date of this act, and

(2) Which thereafter extends or enlarges the burial grounds or cemetery or acquires additional lands for such purposes, shall not dispose or make sale of any lots therein without first causing to be deposited in a bank
