

invested by the board of directors or by the board of education in securities legal for the investment of sinking fund moneys of school districts. The interest earnings on investments shall be paid into the capital reserve fund. The board of directors or the board of education may sell any such securities and reinvest the moneys in other securities or convert such securities into cash when the same may be needed for expenditure under the provisions of this act or for reverting to the general fund if the approved project or projects fail to materialize within the five year period. The school district shall annually show in its budget and in its annual financial report, the amount of moneys in the capital reserve fund which shall at all times be properly identified as to purpose and authority under which it is constituted.

Section 692. Expenditure of Fund.—The moneys in any such capital reserve fund may be expended by the school district singly or jointly (1) with the Commonwealth or any department or agency thereof; (2) with the Federal government or any department or agency thereof; or (3) with one or more other school districts only during the period of time for which the fund was created, and only for capital improvements approved by the Department of Public Instruction and for no other purpose.

APPROVED—The 30th day of November, A. D. 1959.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE

No. 578

AN ACT

Amending the act of July 12, 1919 (P. L. 941), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing and binding of the Legislative Journal and its delivery and distribution; providing for the preparation, printing and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters, expert typewriters, clerks, and other employes, and providing for their compensation and mileage; providing for the making of an appendix and index, the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," changing provisions relating to the contents of the Legislative Journal.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Legislative Journal.

Section 1. Section 2, act of July 12, 1919 (P. L. 941), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing and binding of the Legislative Journal and its delivery and distribution; providing for the preparation, printing and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters, expert typewriters, clerks, and other employes, and providing for their compensation and mileage; providing for the making of an appendix and index, the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," amended April 3, 1956 (P. L. 1367), is amended to read:

Section 2, act of July 12, 1919, P. L. 941, amended April 3, 1956, P. L. 1367, further amended.

Preparation.

Section 2. The Legislative Journal shall be prepared, under the direction of the chief clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives, by the official reporters, clerks and employes of each House, authorized to supervise and prepare the same, and shall contain the following matters; namely, motions, resolutions (simple and concurrent), in full; petitions, remonstrances, and memorials, by brief reference; debate, in full; bills and joint resolutions on first, second and third reading and final passage in the House, by title, in the Senate by number only; reports of conference committees, by title, in the proceedings of both Houses; the yeas and nays, in full, messages and communications from either House to the other or to the Governor, or messages and communications from the Governor to [either] the House, in full, and to the Senate, by brief reference; the biennial messages and inaugural address of the Governor, and tabulated returns of elections for State officers, in full, in the proceedings of the Senate, and by reference only in the proceedings of the House; returns of elections for Senators and Members, in full, in the proceedings of the respective Houses to which returns are made; annual communications of the several State departments, by brief reference; reports of institutions and organizations required by law to be made to the Legislature, by brief reference in the proceedings of the day on which presented; reports of committees on bills in the House, by title, and in the Senate, by number only; bills introduced, by title only; executive nominations, when confirmed at the same time and by the same vote, with but one list of yeas and nays appended, in full, in the proceedings of the Senate; and, generally, what is actually said, read, or done, under the limitations heretofore prescribed. A list of the standing committees of the [Senate and] House of Representatives shall be printed, in solid form, at the end of the proceedings in the last number of each month. The reports of all special committees presented in either House shall be printed in an appendix, unless authorized by resolution to be printed in the same day's Journal on which the report is presented, in which case the said report shall be printed but once, in separate form, following the proceedings of both Houses. The Legislative Journal shall include an appendix, which shall contain an index to the Legislative Journal and said appendix; the index to be compiled under the direction of the librarian of the Senate, and shall be prepared as concisely as possible; the said appendix and index to be part of the Legislative Journal. The reports and other matters in the appendix shall be printed in separate sections: Provided, That the chief clerks of the respective Houses may each order not more than three thousand extra copies of any particular report or matter appearing in the appendix, to be delivered by the printer to the Division of Distribution of Documents, subject to requisition as follows: by the Senate, three-twelfths; by the House of Representatives, five-twelfths; and four-twelfths by the Legislative Reference Bureau. The appendix shall be printed in the manner and style provided in section three of this act. Five hundred and fifty copies of the appendix and four hundred copies of the index shall be printed. Fifty copies of the complete unbound appendix shall be furnished and delivered by the printer to the Senate, fifty copies to the House of Representatives, and fifty copies to the Legislative Reference Bureau. Four hundred copies each of the appendix and index shall be retained by the printer of the Legislative Journal and bound by him, together with a like number of each copy of the Legislative Journal, as hereinafter provided, and be delivered by him to the Division of Distribution of Documents, and be subject to requisition as herein provided.

Contents.

Appendix and Index.

Printing and distribution of appendix and index.

APPROVED—The 30th day of November, A. D. 1959.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE

No. 579

AN ACT

Amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," permitting additional methods of sharing annual lease rentals for projects constructed for more than one school district.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Public School Code of 1949.

Section 1. Subsection (d), section 2574, act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), known as the "Public School Code of 1949," added March 22, 1956 (P. L. 1315), is amended to read:

Subsection (d), section 2574, act of March 10, 1949, P. L. 30, added March 22, 1956, P. L. 1315, further amended.

Section 2574. Approved Reimbursable Rental for Leases Hereafter Approved and Approved Reimbursable Sinking Fund Charges on Indebtedness.— * * *

(d) For purposes of calculating the amount of rental reimbursement the approved reimbursable rental for a school project constructed for two or more school districts shall annually be apportioned among the par-