No. 179

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," clarifying, changing and increasing certain fees.

The Game Law.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 402, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended June 20, 1947, P. L. 634, further amended.

Section 1. Section 402, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended June 20, 1947 (P. L. 634), is amended to read:

Section 402. Application for Permits.—Any person, firm, association, or corporation desiring a permit, as provided for in this article, shall present an application therefor, on forms supplied by the commission, and shall pay to the director [five dollars, except in the following cases: Taxidermists] the following fees: collecting permit, ten dollars ($10); fur dealer's employes permit, ten dollars ($10); permit for possessing or owning a ferret or fitch, ten dollars ($10), roadside menagerie, fifteen dollars ($15); game propagation, fifteen dollars ($15); fur farming, fifteen dollars ($15); taxidermists desiring to practice taxidermy for profit shall pay [twenty-five dollars; fur dealers, who have resided permanently in this Commonwealth for the preceding twelve months or more, purchasing or receiving raw furs for commercial purposes shall pay ten dollars;] fifty dollars ($50) for initial application and permit, and twenty-five dollars ($25) per year thereafter for renewal of permit; resident fur dealers, twenty-five dollars ($25); nonresident fur dealers, purchasing or receiving raw furs for commercial purposes in this Commonwealth, shall pay one hundred dollars ($100); persons desiring to operate regulated shooting grounds on a non-commercial basis shall pay twenty-five dollars ($25) for the first one hundred acres in the tract so used, and five dollars ($5) for each additional one hundred acres or fraction thereof; persons desiring to operate regulated shooting grounds on a commercial basis shall pay fifty dollars ($50) for the first one hundred acres, and ten dollars ($10) for each additional one hundred acres, or fraction thereof; and breeders and dealers in ferrets or fitches shall pay [twenty-five] fifty dollars ($50).

The application shall be accompanied by the written statement of at least two well-known citizens of the community in which the applicant resides, certifying to his good character and to his fitness to be entrusted with the authority granted by such special permit.

In the case of applications for permits by firms, associations, or corporations, the application shall bear the name of the president or general manager, and the permit shall be issued in his name. All applications for propagating permits and regulated shooting grounds permits shall be accompanied by a written description and a map or sketch of the premises to be used for such purposes, with the location thereof.

Section 2. Section 406 of the act is amended to read: Section 406 of the act, amended.

Section 406. Permits to Fur Dealers.—Permits issued to persons to act as fur dealers shall authorize the holder thereof to receive or to purchase and to resell raw furs for commercial purposes.

Regular authorized employes of fur dealers who hold a resident fur-dealer's permit, and operate from the established place of business of such permittee, may be issued a special employe's permit, upon application submitted by the employer, the cost of which shall be the [minimum] fee hereinbefore fixed, which shall authorize said employe to receive or purchase raw furs for his employer anywhere in the Commonwealth. No such permit shall be required when the employe is purchasing furs only at his employer's regularly established place of business.

A permit issued to a nonresident firm or corporation authorizing such firm or corporation to receive or to purchase and to resell raw furs in this Commonwealth for commercial purposes shall authorize not to exceed three members of said firm or corporation, or one employe thereof, to use said permit for the purpose of purchasing raw furs in this Commonwealth. The names and addresses of such persons shall be clearly indicated on the face of the permit, which shall at all times be carried by the person using it.

It is unlawful for any person to purchase, or receive, or resell, or to aid or assist in the purchase or resale of, raw furs for commercial purposes without a permit, as herein required, issued by the commission.

APPROVED—The 13th day of June, A. D. 1961.

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," permitting a nonresident who is not a resident of the United States to purchase a three-day license for hunting on regulated shooting grounds.

The Game Law.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 303.1,
act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225,
added August 19, 1953, P. L. 1081, amended.

Section 1. Section 303.1, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," added August 19, 1953 (P. L. 1081), is amended to read:

Section 303.1. Three-Day Licenses to Nonresidents to Hunt on Regulated Shooting Grounds.—Every person, sixteen (16) years of age or upward, upon application in writing to the authorized agent, in such form as the commission may prescribe, and the presentation of proof that he or she is a nonresident of the Commonwealth but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born nonresidents, the production of such applicant's naturalization papers, or an alien nonresident who is also a nonresident of the United States and who furnishes satisfactory proof of his or her residence, shall, upon the payment to the issuing agent of three dollars ($3.00), for the use of the commission, and fifteen cents ($.15), for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license, herein referred to as a "Three-Day Special Regulated Shooting Ground License," which shall be valid for a period of three (3) consecutive days, Sundays excluded, and shall entitle the holder thereof to hunt, take or kill, on lawfully operated regulated shooting grounds, all wild birds and wild animals which may be legally hunted, taken or killed in this Commonwealth on such grounds, and to participate in a shoot held thereon, under a regulated shooting grounds permit.
