reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," eliminating the requirement that cotton fabrics used in State institutions be flameproofed.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Administrative Code of 1929.

Section 1. Section 528, act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," as added by act of May 21, 1956 (P. L. 1638), is amended to read:

Section 528, act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, added May 21, 1956, P. L. 1638, amended.

Section 528. Cotton Fabrics.—All cotton fabrics or other fabrics or material used in State institutions [for mattress ticking or uniforms, or used for any other purpose or use], which involves the threat of fire, shall be treated, [or] processed [to render them permanently flameproof with a non-soluble permanent flameproofing agent or compound. These cotton fabrics used for the above stated purposes, which cannot be satisfactorily treated by a non-soluble permanent flameproofing agent or compound, shall be treated with some other commercially acceptable compound which will give the fabrics the best possible flameproofing characteristics commercially available at a reasonable cost. Such treatment or processing shall be renewed from time to time as is necessary to preserve or maintain the flameproofing characteristics of the fabrics.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to cotton fabrics purchased on and after August one, one thousand nine hundred fifty-six] or used so as to lessen danger from fire, smoke or panic in accordance with regulations of the Department of Labor and Industry approved by the Industrial Board.

Section 2. This act shall be effective immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 6th day of July, A. D. 1961.
