

The Department of Public Welfare may also accept as campers boys fifteen (15) to eighteen (18) years of age, who have been committed to an institution and whose transfer to a camp is recommended by the institution and approved by the committing Juvenile Court. The Department of Public Welfare may return campers to the institution from which they were received for reasons of health, security or morale. The committing Juvenile Court shall be notified, promptly, of such action and a full explanation in writing shall be provided the committing court and the institution. No forestry camp shall receive a boy as a camper unless an order of commitment accompanies him. When a boy is transferred from a forestry camp to an institution, the order of commitment shall accompany him.

Section 4. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or as much thereof as is necessary, is hereby appropriated to the Department of Forests and Waters for the construction and renovation of camp facilities. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), or as much thereof as is necessary, is appropriated to the Department of Public Welfare for the operation of the camp or camps [ :Provided, That whenever campers are transferred to a forest conservation camp from the Pennsylvania Training School, the cost of maintaining them will be borne by that institution ]. The county from which each boy was committed shall reimburse the Commonwealth for his care at a rate not exceeding fifty per centum (50%) of the per diem operating expenses for each such boy: Provided, however, That for purposes of this section for determining reimbursement to the Commonwealth, operating expenses shall not include compensation to campers for services rendered to the Commonwealth. The Department of Public Welfare shall establish rules and regulations respecting circumstances under which compensation may be paid and the amount of such compensation.

AN ACT

Amending the act of July 5, 1917 (P. L. 693), entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the several counties of this Commonwealth to establish and maintain schools for the care and education of children, under the jurisdiction of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace, or other courts, sitting as juvenile courts, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or by condemnation; defining the scope and character of such schools; regulating the proceedings for the establishment, maintenance and management thereof; authorizing the county commissioners to make appropriation, levy taxes, and to incur indebtedness therefor; and providing that all such schools heretofore established by any county shall be continued and maintained under the authority of this act; removing the persons in charge thereof; and providing that any property heretofore acquired for any such schools shall be held and used for the schools provided for in this act," providing for the transfer of schools to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and authorizing operation of schools to be terminated.

Counties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Act of July 5,
1917, P. L. 693, amended by adding two new sections 2.1 and 2.2.

Section 1. The act of July 5, 1917 (P. L. 693), entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the several counties of this Commonwealth to establish and maintain schools for the care and education of children, under the jurisdiction of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace, or other courts, sitting as juvenile courts, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or by condemnation; defining the scope and character of such schools; regulating the proceedings for the establishment, maintenance and management thereof; authorizing the county commissioners to make appropriation, levy taxes, and to incur indebtedness therefor; and providing that all such schools heretofore established by any county shall be continued and maintained under the authority of this act; removing the persons in charge thereof; and providing that any property heretofore acquired for any such schools shall be held and used for the schools provided for in this act," is amended by adding, after section 2, two new sections to read:

Section 2.1. Any county which has established a school or schools for the care and education of such children under the jurisdiction of the court of quarter sessions of the peace or other court sitting as a juvenile court may transfer, pursuant to an agreement between the county commissioners and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the terms of which have been approved by the court of common pleas of the county in which the school or schools have been established, the school or schools to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for maintenance and for the care and education of the children committed thereto. Upon transfer of any such school to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the terms of office and the powers and duties of the board of managers of the school shall terminate.

Section 2.2. Whenever the commissioners of any county deem it unnecessary to continue the operation of any school or schools established pursuant to this act, the commissioners may, by ordinance or resolution, terminate operation thereof and dispose of all or any part of the school property in the manner prescribed by law. Upon such cessation of the operation of any such school, the terms of office and the powers and duties of the board of managers of the school shall terminate.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

AN ACT

Authorizing the judge of the court of common pleas of any county of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth class to direct that recorded maps, plats or plans be reproduced; requiring the recorder of deeds to preserve originals of maps, plats or plans so reproduced; and providing for payment of costs by the county.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

County of 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th or 8th class.

Section 1. In any county of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth class, the judge of the court of common pleas may, in order to protect and preserve original maps, plats or plans which have been recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of such county, direct the reproduction thereof by means of any photostatic, photographic or other mechanical process which produces a clear, accurate and permanent copy or reproduction of the original. The originals of any maps, plats or plans so reproduced shall be preserved by the recorder of deeds and shall be available upon demand.

Common pleas judge may direct reproduction of maps, plats or plans.

Section 2. The expense of any reproduction of maps, plats or plans authorized by this act shall be arranged for by the county commissioners and paid out of the county treasury.

Costs to be borne by county.
