No. 689

AN ACT

Amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," authorizing the purchase and resale of books by the Historical and Museum Commission.

The Administrative Code of 1929.

Article XXVIII-A, act of April 29, 1929, P. L. 177, amended by adding a new section 2803-A.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Article XXVIII-A, act of April 29, 1929 (P. L. 177), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," is amended by adding, at the end thereof, a new section to read:

Section 2803-A. Historical Publications.—In order to encourage and promote the economical publication of worthwhile books on the history, archaeology, art, cartography, folklore and other cultural elements of Pennsylvania's heritage, the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, with the approval of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, is authorized to enter into agreements with publishers to subsidize the publishing of books in the said fields by agreeing to purchase a sufficient number of copies of a given book to make publication possible. The said com- mission may then resell such books at the State Museum or at the historic properties in the same manner as its own publications.
