AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," authorizing ordinances and certain resolutions to be in force after attachment to the borough ordinance book, and validating certain borough records.

The Borough Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Subsection (a), section 1008, act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, further amended.

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 1008, act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended to read:

Section 1008. Recording, Advertising and Proof of Ordinances; Codification of Ordinances.—(a) No ordinance, or resolution of a legislative character, in the nature of an ordinance, shall be considered in force until the same is recorded in the ordinance book of the borough and has been advertised as provided in this article. All ordinances, or resolutions of a legislative character in the nature of an ordinance, may be proved by the certificate of the borough secretary, under the corporate seal, and, when printed or published in book or pamphlet form and purporting to be published by the authority of the borough, shall be read and received as evidence in all courts and places without further proof. All borough ordinances shall, within one month after their passage, be recorded by the borough secretary in a book provided for that purpose, which shall be at all times open to the inspection of citizens. The entry of the borough ordinance in the ordinance book by the secretary shall be sufficient, without the signature thereto of the president of council, [burgess] mayor or other person. Any and all borough ordinances, or portions thereof, the text of which, prior to the effective date of this amendment, shall have been attached to the ordinance book, shall be considered in force just as if such ordinances, or portions thereof, had been recorded directly upon the
