AN ACT

Empowering cities of the first class, coterminous with school districts of the first class, to authorize the boards of public education of such school districts to impose certain additional taxes for school district purposes, and providing for the levy, assessment and collection of such taxes.

First class cities.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Council of first class city may authorize coterminous first class school district to impose taxes for school purposes on certain objects.

Section 1. The council of any city of the first class, coterminous with a school district of the first class may, by ordinance, authorize the board of public education of such school district to impose taxes for the purposes of such school district on any persons, transactions, occupations, privileges, subjects, and real and personal property which may now or hereafter be taxable by such city for general revenue purposes, except that no such ordinance shall authorize the imposition of a tax on the wages, salary or net income of any person not a resident of such school district.

Section 2. The ordinance authorizing the tax shall fix the rate thereof, and provide for the levy, assessment and collection of the same. Such taxes shall be levied, assessed and collected in accordance with all provisions, restrictions, limitations, rights of notice and appeal as are applicable to like taxes imposed for city purposes.

Ordinance to fix rate and provide for levy, assessment and collection.

Section 3. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to diminish, limit or qualify any power now or hereafter existing to impose, assess, levy or collect any tax or taxes in the manner or by the agency provided by law.

Conditions.

Section 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 9th day of August, A. D. 1963.
