HB 527

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," changing provisions relating to trespassing, changing penalties and providing for revocation of hunting and fishing licenses.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 954, act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," amended May 21, 1943 (P. L. 306), is amended to read:

Section 954. Trespass upon Posted Land.—(a) Whoever wilfully enters upon any land, which the owner, lessee, or occupant has caused to be prominently posted with printed notices that the said land is private property, and warning all persons from trespassing thereon, under the penalties provided in this section, or with printed notices that permission of the owner, lessee, or occupant is required to hunt or fish thereon, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars ($10), together with costs of prosecution, and in default of payment thereof shall be committed to jail for one (1) day for each dollar of fine imposed, and whoever wilfully enters upon any land to hunt or fish thereon and is requested by the owner, lessee or occupant to remove himself from said land and he refuses to do so, or if he removes himself from the land, reenters upon said land to hunt or fish thereon, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), and not exceeding [ten dollars ($10)] one hundred dollars ($100), together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of said fine and costs, shall be committed to jail for one (1) day for each dollar of fine imposed.

(b) Records of final convictions under the provisions of this section, wherein the fine imposed was twenty-five dollars ($25), or more, shall be transmitted by the magistrate, alderman, justice of the peace or court to the Game Commission if the offense occurred in connection with hunting and to the Fish Commission if the offense occurred in connection with fishing, for review, and his hunting or fishing license, may be revoked for one (1) year.

APPROVED—The 1st day of September, A. D. 1967.
