No. 188

AN ACT

SB 923

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," authorizing hunting licenses for aliens.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 303, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended July 30, 1963 (P. L. 360) and August 26, 1965 (P. L. 405), is amended to read:

Section 303. Nonresident Hunting and Alien [Nonresident] License Fees.—Every citizen of the United States who is a nonresident of this Commonwealth, upon application made, in writing to any agent authorized to issue such licenses, or to the Department of Revenue, [and the presentation of proof that he is a citizen of the United States,] unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified, and upon payment to said agent or commission of twenty-five dollars and thirty-five cents ($25.35) shall be entitled to the license herein designated as a Nonresident Hunter's License and a tag with the number of the license thereon, which shall entitle the holder to hunt for all wild birds and wild animals which may legally be hunted in this Commonwealth, until the close of the license year. Other licenses valid for use by nonresidents and [alien nonresidents] aliens shall be as follows:

Nonresident trapper's license which shall be issued only upon application to the Commission in Harrisburg and which shall be effective for the same period as hunters' licenses shall entitle the holder to take through the use of traps or deadfalls only wild birds and wild animals which may legally be trapped in this Commonwealth, except beavers, twenty-five dollars ($25). Nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the holder of a nonresident trapper's license from using a sidearm or a rifle not larger than a .22 rimfire caliber to kill legally caught birds and animals.

Every [alien nonresident of this Commonwealth who is also a nonresident of the United States,] unnaturalized person of foreign birth, upon written application made to the Department of Revenue, any county treasurer of Pennsylvania or any field division office of the Pennsylvania Game Commission, setting forth satisfactory evidence of his mental and physical fitness to carry and use firearms and presentation of proof of legal entry into the United States, unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified, and upon the payment to the Department of Revenue, any county treasurer in Pennsylvania or any field division office of the Pennsylvania Game Commission [of] the [fees above designated for nonresidents] fee of twenty-five dollars and thirty-five cents ($25.35) shall be entitled to [a nonresident] an alien hunter's license, and the proper tag issued therewith; but the Department of Revenue, the county treasurer or the field division office of the Pennsylvania Game Commission shall indicate on the face of the license that the holder is an alien [nonresident].

Section 2. Section 303.1 of the act, added August 19, 1953 (P. L. 1081) and amended June 13, 1961 (P. L. 304) and September 10, 1965 (P. L. 516), is amended to read:

Section 303.1. Three-Day Licenses to Nonresidents to Hunt on Regulated Shooting Grounds.—Every person, twelve (12) years of age or upward, upon application in writing to the authorized agent, in such form as the commission may prescribe, and the presentation of proof that he or she is a nonresident of the Commonwealth [but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born nonresidents, the production of such applicant's naturalization papers, or an alien nonresident who is also a nonresident of the United States and who furnishes satisfactory proof of his or her residence,] or an unnaturalized person of foreign birth who presents proof of legal entry into the United States, shall, upon <sup>1</sup>the payment to the issuing agent of three dollars ($3.00), for the use of the commission, and fifteen cents ($.15), for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license, herein referred to as a "Three-Day Special Regulated Shooting Ground License," which shall be valid for a period of three (3) consecutive days, Sundays excluded, and shall entitle the holder thereof to hunt, take or kill, on lawfully operated regulated shooting grounds, all wild birds and wild animals which may be legally hunted, taken or killed in this Commonwealth on such grounds, and to participate in a shoot held thereon, under a regulated shooting grounds permit.

A tag or button, in such size and form as the commission may determine, shall be issued with each license, which tag or button the licensee is required to wear in plain view on an outer garment at all times while using it, in such a manner that the tag or button and the numerals thereon is plainly visible. The holder of such license shall be subject to the restrictions and requirements of all laws and regulations of the commission, now in force or hereafter adopted, and to the penalties prescribed for violation thereof.

Upon filing an appropriate bond, with corporate surety, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000), approved by the Department of Justice, the permittees of regulated shooting grounds, or an officer of a corporate permittee, who, for that purpose, are hereby made agents of the Department of Revenue, shall be authorized to issue Three-Day Nonresident and Alien Licenses as hereinbefore described.

Each issuing agent shall keep a record and make monthly reports and remittances in the form and manner and at the time prescribed by sections three hundred ten and three hundred eleven of The Game Law.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent holders of nonresident and alien hunting licenses from hunting on regulated shooting grounds by requiring them to obtain an additional license as prescribed above.

Section 3. The first two paragraphs of subsection (c) of section 501, of the act, amended July 23, 1965 (P. L. 240) and August 26, 1965 (P. L. 409), are amended to read:

Section 501. Open Seasons.—* * *

(c) Resident, [and] Nonresident, and Alien Hunters' Licenses and Tags for Antlerless Deer.—If in any year the commission, by resolution, declares an open season for antlerless deer, it shall issue resident, [and] nonresident and alien hunters' licenses and tags for antlerless deer to hunt for or kill such deer, at a fee of one dollar fifteen cents under such rules and regulations governing the issuance of such licenses and tags as it may deem necessary to limit the number of persons who may hunt for such deer in any county of the Commonwealth, provided public notice of such action is given as hereinafter required: And provided, however, That no applications, for antlerless deer licenses received from nonresidents and aliens shall be approved or licenses issued in advance of thirty days prior to the opening date of such antlerless deer season. Such licenses and tags may be issued only to holders of resident, [or] nonresident, or alien hunting licenses, and such licenses and tags shall not be transferable from one person to another nor shall they be refunded or reissued to anyone.

Resident, [and] nonresident, and alien hunters' licenses and tags for antlerless deer shall be issued only by the county treasurers in counties where such deer may be hunted and killed, who, for that purpose, are hereby made agents of the Department of Revenue.

No. 189
AN ACT

HB 761

Amending the act of October 27, 1955 (P. L. 744), entitled, as amended, "An act prohibiting certain practices of discrimination because of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, age or national origin by employers, employment agencies, labor organizations and others as herein defined; creating the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission in the Department of Labor and Industry; defining its functions, powers and duties; providing for procedure and enforcement; providing for formulation of an educational program to prevent prejudice; providing for judicial review and enforcement and imposing penalties," further providing for injunctions in certain housing complaints.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 9.1, act of October 27, 1955 (P. L. 744), known as the "Pennsylvania Human Relations Act," added January 24, 1966 (P. L. 1523), is amended to read:

Section 9.1. Injunctions in Certain Housing Complaints.—When it appears that a housing unit or units involved in a complaint may be sold, rented or otherwise disposed of before a determination of the case has been made, and the commission shows probable cause for the complaint, the court of common pleas of the county in which the unit is located may issue an injunction restraining the sale, rental or other disposition of the unit or units, except in compliance with the order of court. In every such case, the court shall grant or deny the injunction within thirty days of the filing of the suit. The court may attach to any such injunction granted such other conditions as it deems proper. Such injunction, if issued, shall be of no more than thirty days duration. If an extension of time is required by the commission, this extension may be granted at the discretion of the court, but a reasonable bond shall be required by the court before granting such extension.

APPROVED—The 11th day of October, A. D. 1967.
