No. 95

AN ACT

HB 1933

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," requiring each administrative department, independent administrative board and commission of the Commonwealth to promulgate rules and regulations governing vehicular traffic at

Commonwealth facilities, making violation of such rules and regulations a summary offense and providing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," is amended by adding after section 937, a new section to read:

Section 937.1. Violation of Governmental Rules Regarding Traffic.

—Each administrative department, independent administrative board, and commission of the Commonwealth shall promulgate rules and regulations governing all vehicular traffic at those Commonwealth facilities situated upon property of the Commonwealth which are within the exclusive jurisdiction of such department, board or commission, including but not limited to regulations governing the parking of vehicles upon said property. Whoever violates any of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this section governing the parking of vehicles shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate of the political subdivision in which the Commonwealth property is located, in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five dollars ($5), and in default of the payment thereof, shall undergo imprisonment not exceeding three (3) days. Whoever violates any of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this section governing the movement of traffic or the operation of vehicles upon said property shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate of the political subdivision in which the Commonwealth property is located, in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifteen dollars ($15), and, in default of payment thereof, shall undergo imprisonment not exceeding five (5) days.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 12th day of June, A. D. 1968.
