

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsections (c) and (f) of section 13.1, act of May 28, 1931 (P. L. 202), known as the "Motor Boat Law," added August 14, 1963 (P. L. 808), are amended to read:

Section 13.1. * * *

(c) Any person employed or elected by this Commonwealth or by any county, municipality or township, whose duty it is to preserve the peace or to make arrests or to enforce the law, including, but not limited to, members of the Pennsylvania State Police, game, fish or forest wardens, or deputies or other qualified persons, may [on the recommendation of the assistant executive director] be designated and empowered by the commission to enforce the provisions of this act.

* * *

(f) ¹The services of other departments of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may be used by the [assistant executive director] commission to accomplish any of the provisions of this act. If there is adequate efficiency by so doing, the various departments and commissions shall cooperate to the maximum extent that is feasible.

AN ACT

HB 1896

Amending the act of July 8, 1941 (P. L. 298), entitled "An act authorizing the creation of, and providing for, and regulating the maintenance and operation of a county employes' retirement system in counties of the fourth class, imposing certain charges on counties, and fixing penalties," authorizing any county to increase the county share of employes' monthly allowances.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The act of July 8, 1941 (P. L. 298), known as the "Fourth Class County Retirement Law," is amended by adding after section 17.1, a new section to read:

Section 17.2. Increase of County Share for Certain Employees.—

(a) When the board has adopted the one-eightieth (1/80) class, the county may, in the case of an employe who has retired or who retires in the future and has his monthly allowance calculated under the one one-hundredth (1/100) class, increase their share of such employe's monthly allowance by twenty-five per centum and in the case of an employe who has his allowance calculated under the one one-hundred twentieth (1/120) class, increase their share of such employe's monthly allowance by fifty per centum.

(b) When the board has not adopted the one-eightieth (1/80) class, but only has the one one-hundredth (1/100) and the one one-hundred twentieth (1/120) class, the county may, in the case of an employe who has retired or who retires in the future and has his monthly allowance calculated under the one one-hundred twentieth (1/120) class, increase their share of such employe's monthly allowance by twenty per centum.
