No. 177

AN ACT

SB 929

Amending the act of January 24, 1966 (P. L. 1535), entitled "An act providing for the planning and regulation of community and individual and community sewage disposal systems; requiring municipalities to submit plans for systems in their jurisdiction; authorizing grants to municipalities; requiring permits for persons installing such systems; authorizing the Department of Health to adopt rules, regulations, standards and procedures; creating an advisory committee; providing remedies and prescribing penalties," changing requirements for permits, authorizing the appointment of second class township supervisors as inspectors and providing for appeals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Clause (1) of section 2 and subsections (a) and (g) of section 7, act of January 24, 1966 (P. L. 1535), known as the "Pennsylvania Sewage Facilities Act," are amended to read:

Section 2. Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Individual sewage system" means a single system of piping, tanks or other facilities serving only a single lot [which is less than one acre in size or serving two lots which are less than one and one-half acres in total area] and disposing of sewage in whole or in part into the soil of the property or into any waters of this Commonwealth.

* * *

Section 7. Permits and Inspection.—(a) No person shall install an individual or community sewage disposal system or construct any building in which an individual or community sewage disposal system is to be installed without first obtaining a permit indicating that the site and the plans and specifications of such system are in compliance with the provisions of this act and the standards adopted pursuant to this act. No permit shall be required by the department or any municipality in those cases where a permit from the Sanitary Water Board or the secretary has been obtained, or where the department determines that such permit is not necessary for the protection of the public health or for single structures intended for occupancy by not more than two families within municipalities having a population of less than three hundred per square mile: Provided, however, That a permit shall be required in areas of the municipality where the population density exceeds fifty persons occupying such structures located on adjoining or opposite lots each having front footage of less than one hundred feet.

* * *

(g) The municipality, county department of health, joint county department of health, or the department in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of this act, shall have the power to make, or cause to be made, such inspections and tests as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of section 7 of this act and its authorized representatives shall have the right to enter upon lands for said purposes. In making said inspections in second class townships the supervisors may be appointed as inspectors and their compensation as inspectors shall be fixed by the township auditors.

Section 2. The act is amended by adding after section 12, a new section to read:

Section 12.1. Appeals.—(a) Any person aggrieved by an action of a municipality, department of health or joint county department of health may, within thirty days after such action, appeal to the Secretary of Health who shall personally or by his designee hear the appeal in accordance with the provisions of the act of June 4, 1945 (P. L. 1388), known as the “Administrative Agency Law.”

(b) All actions of the department whether under subsection (a) of this section or under any other provision of this act, shall be taken subject to the right of notice, hearing and adjudication, and the right of appeal therefrom, in accordance with the provisions of the act of June 4, 1945 (P. L. 1388), known as the “Administrative Agency Law.”

Section 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 16th day of July, A. D. 1968.
