Moneys shall be expended for this purpose only to the extent that a sum equal to fifty per cent of thirty-seven thousand eight hundred dollars ($37,800), the amount to be expended by the Commonwealth, is contributed to the Pennsylvania State University by the members of the anthracite and bituminous coal industry. Affidavits evidencing such contributions shall be submitted by the university to the Auditor General.

To the act of November 30, 1965 (P. L. 843), entitled "An act providing for the establishment and operation of Temple University as an instrumentality of the Commonwealth to serve as a State-related university in the higher education system of the Commonwealth; providing for change of name; providing for the composition of the board of trustees; terms of trustees, and the power and duties of such trustees; providing for preference to Pennsylvania residents in tuition; providing for public support and capital improvements; authorizing appropriations in amounts to be fixed annually by the General Assembly; providing for the auditing of accounts of expenditures from said appropriations; authorizing the issuance of bonds exempt from taxation within the Commonwealth; requiring the President to make an annual report of the operations of Temple University," making appropriations for carrying the same into effect, providing for a tuition supplement to all full-time and part-time Pennsylvania resident students, and providing a method of accounting for the funds appropriated.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The sum of thirty-three million four hundred forty thousand five hundred sixty-seven dollars ($33,440,567), or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby specifically appropriated to the trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia for the fiscal year of July 1, 1968 to June 30, 1969, for the following purposes and in the amounts as shown:

(1) For the general maintenance of all schools, departments, divisions, offices, and services of the university, with the exception of the School of Medicine, including repairs and improvements to the grounds and buildings, service of light, heat, power, water, and sewage disposal, salaries and wages, materials, supplies, equipment books and periodicals, insurance and interest, and such other expenditures as may be necessary and practicable, but the total sum of such expenditures shall not exceed twenty million eight thousand five hundred seventy-four dollars ($20,008,574).

(2) For a tuition supplement the sum of nine million five hundred ninety-eight thousand three hundred fifty-one dollars ($9,598,351), or as much thereof as may be necessary. The moneys so appropriated by this clause shall be applied by Temple University ¹solely for the purpose of maintaining for full-time Pennsylvania resident students in all schools and divisions of the university ²a uniform tuition and fee rate of four hundred fifty dollars ($450), and establishing an undergraduate credit-hour rate of fourteen dollars ($14) and a graduate credit-hour rate of sixteen dollars ($16) for part-time Pennsylvania resident students, and for the purpose of establishing at the Ambler Campus and at all other extension ³campuses or centers of the university a uniform tuition and fee rate of three hundred ninety dollars ($390) for full-time Pennsylvania resident ⁴students. nine dollars ($409) per semester, for full-time Pennsylvania resident undergraduate students at the Ambler Campus the tuition and fee rate of four hundred sixty dollars ($460) per semester shall be reduced by two hundred sixty-five dollars ($265) per semester, for part-time Pennsylvania resident undergraduate students at the main campus the credit-hour rate of twenty-eight dollars ($28) per credit hour shall be reduced by fourteen dollars ($14) per credit, for part-time Pennsylvania resident graduate students at the main campus the credit-hour rate of thirty-two dollars ($32) per credit shall be reduced by sixteen dollars ($16) per credit. The funds appropriated under this clause may be used by Temple University for the same purpose as tuition and fees received from students. The Board of Trustees may increase tuition and fees as necessary in the event that the amounts ¹appropriated are not sufficient to maintain the university. Any dollar increase in tuition and fees for Pennsylvania resident students must be accompanied by an equal or greater dollar increase for nonresident students.

(3) For the general maintenance of the School of Medicine, including repairs and improvements to the grounds and buildings, service of light, heat, power, water, and sewage disposal, salaries and wages, materials, supplies, equipment, books and periodicals, insurance and interest and such other expenditures as may be necessary and practicable, but the total sum of such expenditures shall not exceed three million eight hundred thirty-three thousand six hundred forty-two dollars ($3,833,642).

Section 2. Temple University shall apply the moneys appropriated by this act only for such purposes as are permitted in this act and shall at all times maintain proper records showing the application of such moneys. Not later than one hundred twenty days after the close of the fiscal year to which this act relates, Temple University shall file with the General Assembly and with the Auditor General of the Commonwealth, a statement setting forth the amounts and purposes of all expenditures made from moneys appropriated by this act and other university accounts during said fiscal year. Such statement of expenditures shall be reviewed by the Auditor General of the Commonwealth, and he shall have the right, in respect to the moneys appropriated by this act, to audit and disallow expenditures made for purposes not permitted by this act and to cause such sums to be recovered and paid by Temple University to the Treasurer of the Commonwealth. In respect to expenditures made by the university from moneys other than those appropriated by this act, the Auditor General shall have the right to review only and he shall file annually with the General Assembly such information concerning said expenditures as the General Assembly or any of its committees may require.
