

No. 228

AN ACT

HB 2140

Authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to enter into necessary agreements with the City of Easton and the Pennsylvania Canal Society to assist in the management, planning, and development of <sup>1</sup> the Forks of the Delaware Canal Museum located in the City of Easton, Northampton County and further authorizing the commission to employ necessary personnel and contract for necessary services.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the City of Easton and the Pennsylvania Canal Society to assist in management, planning, and development of the Forks of the Delaware Canal Museum located in the City of Easton.

Section 2. The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission is hereby authorized to employ necessary personnel and to contract for essential services related to the management, planning and development of said Forks of the Delaware Canal Museum in accord with terms of said agreements with the City of Easton and the Pennsylvania Canal Society.

Section 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 25th day of November, A. D. 1970.

RAYMOND P. SHAFER

The foregoing is a true and correct copy of Act of the General Assembly No. 228.

<sup>1</sup>"a" in original.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.