

No. 286

AN ACT

HB 2198

Amending the act of February 1, 1966 (P.L.1656), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," clarifying provisions relating to appeals from ordinances.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 1010, act of February 1, 1966 (P.L.1656), known as "The Borough Code," amended October 9, 1967 (P.L.399), is amended to read:

Section 1010. Appeals from Ordinances.—Complaint as to the legality of any ordinance or resolution may be made to the court of quarter sessions, upon entering into recognizance with sufficient security to prosecute the same with effect and for the payment of costs, by any person aggrieved, within thirty days after the [enactment] advertisement of any ordinance or the adoption of any resolution, and the determination and order of the court thereon shall be conclusive. In cases of ordinances effecting change of boundaries or territorial limits of any borough or laying out streets over private lands, the court shall have jurisdiction to review the propriety as well as the legality of the ordinance. No such appeal shall act as a supersedeas unless the court shall so order or unless specifically otherwise provided in this or any other applicable act.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 10th day of December, A. D. 1970.
