

No. 65

AN ACT

SB 458

Amending the act of April 13, 1972 (P.L.184, No.62), entitled "An act giving municipalities the right and power to adopt home rule charters or one of several optional plans of government and to exercise the powers and authority of local self-government subject to certain restrictions and limitations; providing procedures for such adoption and defining the effect thereof," allowing a government study commission eighteen months to report if it proposes a home rule charter.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 210, act of April 13, 1972 (P.L.184, No.62), known as the "Home Rule Charter and Optional Plans Law," is amended to read:

Section 210. (a) The government study commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the citizens of the municipality within nine calendar months from the date of its election except that it shall be permitted an additional [~~three~~] nine months if it elects to prepare and submit a proposed home rule charter. It shall publish or cause to be published sufficient copies of its final report for public study and information, and shall deliver to the municipal clerk or secretary sufficient copies of the report to supply it to any interested citizen upon request. If the commission shall recommend the adoption of a home rule charter or any of the optional plans of government as authorized in this act, the report shall contain the complete plans as recommended.
