

No. 96

AN ACT

SB 162

Amending the act of February 1, 1966 (P.L.1656, No.581), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," further providing for the sale of real property.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Clause (4) of section 1201, act of February 1, 1966 (P.L.1656, No.581), known as "The Borough Code," is amended to read:
Section 1201. General Powers.—A borough may:

(4) Purchase, acquire by gift, or otherwise, hold, lease, let and convey, by sale or lease, such real and personal property as shall be deemed to be to the best interest of the borough: Provided, That no real estate owned by the borough shall be sold for a consideration in excess of [five hundred dollars ($500), fifteen hundred dollars ($1500)], except to the highest bidder after due notice by advertisement for bids in one newspaper of general circulation in the borough. Such advertisement shall be published once not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the opening of bids, and such date for opening bids shall be announced in such advertisement. The acceptance of bids shall be made only by public announcement at a regular or special meeting of council. All bids shall be accepted on the condition that payment of the purchase price in full shall be made within sixty days of the acceptance of bids. Real estate owned by a borough may be sold at a consideration of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) or less without advertisement or competitive bidding only after council estimates the value thereof upon receipt of an appraisal by a qualified real estate appraiser.

Except as otherwise hereinafter provided in the case of personal property of an estimated sale value of less than two hundred dollars ($200), no borough personal property shall be disposed of, by sale or otherwise, except upon approval of council, by ordinance or resolution. In cases where council shall approve a sale of such property, it shall estimate the sale value of the entire lot to be disposed of. If council shall estimate the sale value to be two hundred dollars ($200) or more, the entire lot shall be advertised for sale once, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the borough, not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the opening of bids, and such date of opening of bids shall be announced in such advertisement, and sale of the property so advertised shall be made to the best responsible bidder. Council shall have authority, by resolution, to adopt a procedure for the sale of surplus personal property of an estimated sale value of less than two hundred dollars ($200) and the approval of council shall not be required for any individual sale that shall be made in conformity to such procedure.

The provisions of this clause shall not be mandatory where borough property is to be traded in or exchanged for new borough property.

The provisions of this clause requiring advertising for bids and sale to the highest bidder shall not apply where borough real or personal property is to be sold to a municipal authority pursuant to the Municipality Authorities Act of 1945, is to be sold to a non-profit corporation engaged in community industrial development or where real property is to be sold to a person for his exclusive use in an industrial development program.
