A SUPPLEMENT

HB 2330

To the act of November 30, 1965 (P.L.843, No.355), entitled "An act providing for the establishment and operation of Temple University as an instrumentality of the Commonwealth to serve as a State-related university in the higher education system of the Commonwealth; providing for change of name; providing for the composition of the board of trustees; terms of trustees, and the power and duties of such trustees; providing for preference to Pennsylvania residents in tuition; providing for public support and capital improvements; authorizing appropriations in amounts to be fixed annually by the General Assembly; providing for the auditing of accounts of expenditures from said appropriations; authorizing the issuance of bonds exempt from taxation within the Commonwealth; requiring the President to make an annual report of the operations of Temple University," making appropriations for carrying the same into effect, providing for a basis for payments of such appropriation and providing a method of accounting for the funds appropriated.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The following sums, or as much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby specifically appropriated to the Trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia for the fiscal year July 1, 1974 to June 30, 1975, for the purposes and in the amounts as shown:

Payments for general institutional aid shall be made exclusively for reduction of the principal of that portion of debt incurred by Temple University prior to July 1, 1974, which (i) was not incurred in the establishment, conduct or maintenance of any program of instruction or any auxiliary enterprise, or (ii) was not secured by a bond or mortgage which pledges the revenues or property of Temple University as collateral: Provided, That such payments shall not be made until the Governor appoints a committee of not more than seven persons, four of whom shall be the chairman and the minority chairman of the Senate

Appropriations Committee and the chairman and the minority chairman of the House Appropriations Committee who will inquire into the management program and finances of the Temple University Hospital and its relationship to the university and make recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly defining the role of Temple University Hospital in meeting the medical care needs of the community and eliminating its accumulated and continuing deficits. The Auditor General shall also make a determination of full-time equivalent students enrolled in the Doctor of Medicine program and net costs and make certification as to their correctness.
