

(Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1990, transmitted to the General Assembly on May 22, 1990, was approved by a majority vote of the duly elected membership of the House of Representatives on June 30, 1990, and became effective pursuant to law as a result of the failure of the Senate to either approve or disapprove the plan in the manner provided by law, the period for legislative action having expired September 25, 1990.)

No. 1990-1

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 1 OF 1990

Transferring the Pennsylvania Conservation Corps from the Department of Environmental Resources to the Department of Labor and Industry.

Section 1. Transfer of Pennsylvania Conservation Corps in Department of Environmental Resources.

The Pennsylvania Conservation Corps, together with its functions, powers and duties, as set forth in the act of July 2, 1984 (P.L.561, No.112), known as the Pennsylvania Conservation Corps Act, is transferred from the Department of Environmental Resources to the Department of Labor and Industry.

Section 2. Transfer of personnel, records, property and appropriations.

There are hereby transferred, upon approval of the Governor, to the Department of Labor and Industry, to be used, employed and expended in connection with the functions, powers and duties transferred by section 1, personnel, contract obligations, if any, records, files, property, supplies and equipment now being used or held in connection with such functions, powers and duties, and the unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations and other funds available or to be made available for use in connection with such functions, powers and duties.

Section 3. Suspension.

The act of July 2, 1984 (P.L.561, No.112), known as the Pennsylvania Conservation Corps Act, is suspended insofar as it is inconsistent with this reorganization plan.

Section 4. Effective date.

This reorganization plan shall take effect immediately.
