(c) Easements.—The conveyance shall be made under and subject to all lawful and enforceable easements, servitudes and rights of others, including, but not confined to, streets, roadways and rights of any telephone, telegraph, water, electric, gas or pipeline companies, as well as under and subject to any lawful and enforceable estates or tenancies vested in third persons appearing of record, for any portion of the land or improvements erected thereon.

(d) Restrictions.—The deed of conveyance shall contain the following clauses:

Excepting and reserving unto the Grantor, its successors and assigns, all timber, oil, gas and mineral rights. It is the mutual intent of, and agreement between, the Grantor and Grantee and their respective successors and assigns that the above-described property shall remain in a substantially natural, forested condition so as to promote natural and recreational activities and experiences. Therefore, strip mining or other mining activities by the Grantee or its successors are expressly prohibited. The Grantor, its successors, assigns, contractors and/or purchasers, shall not exercise its timber, oil, gas or mineral rights hereby reserved and excepted without first obtaining the written consent of the Grantee or its successors, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Grantee or its successors are permitted to cut or remove a reasonable amount of timber or trees, otherwise hereby excepted and reserved by the Grantor, for the purpose of constructing one right-of-way access through the property, the right-of-way not to exceed 30 feet in width. The Grantee or its successors are also permitted to cut or remove a reasonable amount of timber or trees, otherwise hereby excepted and reserved by the Grantor, for the purpose of constructing a headquarters for the Grantee, or its successors, the area not to exceed one acre. Any proceeds derived by the Grantee or any third parties from the sale of timber or trees removed for the right-of-way or headquarters which, if sold, shall be sold at fair market value, shall be paid to the Grantor.

Under and subject to the condition that the lands conveyed herein shall be used for agricultural/open space purposes only in accordance with the provisions of the act of January 19, 1968 (1967 P.L.992, No.442), entitled "An act authorizing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the local government units thereof to preserve, acquire or hold land for open space uses." Should the Grantee allow the lands conveyed to be used for any other purpose or attempts to convey the premises, title shall immediately revert to and revest in the Grantor. However, the Grantor and Grantee, for their successors and assigns, agree that should the Grantee or its successors dissolve or cease to remain in existence, then the Grantee or its successors may allow title to the above-described real estate to be conveyed to a successor organization that has the same objectives, purposes and goals as the Grantee, the conveyance to be subject to the other covenants and restrictions set forth in this deed.

(e) Execution.—The deed of conveyance shall be by special warranty deed and shall be executed by the Secretary of General Services in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(f) Costs.—Costs and fees incidental to this conveyance shall be borne by the Grantee.

(g) Alternate disposition.—In the event that this conveyance is not executed within 12 months of the effective date of this act, the property may be disposed of under section 2406-A of the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.177, No.175), known as The Administrative Code of 1929.

TOGETHER with the free and uninterrupted right of ingress, egress and regress, over a 180 foot wide right-of-way, containing a road, from the above property to U.S. Route 40.

(c) Conditions of conveyance.—The conveyance authorized in this section shall be made under and subject to all lawful and enforceable easements, servitudes and rights of others, including, but not confined to, streets, roadways and rights of any telephone, telegraph, cable, water, electric, sewer, gas or pipeline companies, as well as under and subject to any lawful and enforceable interest, estates or tenancies vested in third persons, appearing of record, for any portion of the land or improvement erected thereon.

(d) Deed of conveyance.—

(1) The deed of conveyance shall be by special warranty deed and shall contain a clause that, excepting the sale to the United States of America as stipulated in subsection (d)(3), the grantee will pay the Commonwealth either one-half of the proceeds from the sale of the property by the grantee to any third party or $100,000, whichever is greater. If at any time the grantee or its successor in function conveys the property without paying the Commonwealth one-half of the sale proceeds or $100,000, whichever is greater, the property shall immediately revert to and revest in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

This clause shall extinguish ten years after the execution date of the deed of conveyance from the Commonwealth to the County of Fayette.

(2) The deed of conveyance shall contain a clause that requires the grantee to contact the State Historic Preservation Officer prior to land development or construction.

(3) The deed of conveyance authorized by this section shall contain a clause that the grantee shall be permitted to convey the property described in subsection (b) for $1 to the United States of America, or a department thereof, for the sole purpose of establishing a National Veterans Cemetery.

(e) Execution of deed.—The deed of conveyance shall be approved as provided by law and shall be executed by the Secretary of General Services in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In the event that this conveyance is not executed within 12 months of the effective date of this section, the property shall be disposed of in accordance with Article XXIV-A of the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.177, No.175), known as The Administrative Code of 1929.

(f) Costs and fees.—Costs and fees incidental to the conveyance shall be borne by the grantee.

Section 10. Blair County conveyance.

(a) Authorization.—The Department of General Services, with the approval of the Governor and Department of Transportation, is hereby authorized and directed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to grant, sell and convey by special warranty deed to Borough of Hollidaysburg for fair consideration equal to the fair market value as determined by an independent appraisal, the tract of land and buildings described in subsection (b).

(b) Description.—The property to be conveyed pursuant to subsection (a) is the following tract of land consisting of the Department of Transportation's Blair County Maintenance Facility situate in the Borough of Hollidaysburg, Blair County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:
