CHAPTER DCCCCXXXVI.

*A SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled An act for establishing a Land-Office, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

* Antc. chap. 929. vol. 1, pa. 629.

WHEREAS it appears necessary to explain certain parts of the act, entitled An act for establishing a Land-Office, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and to make some amendments thereto. Therefore,

II. Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That the meaning of the word location, mentioned in the fifth section of the said act, was, is, and is hereby declared to be, an application made by any person or persons for land in the office of the secretary of the late Land-Office of Pennsylvania, and entered in the books of the said office, numbered and sent to the Surveyor-General's office.

The word location defined.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, in Council, to sign all and every warrant and warrants of acceptance, re-survey and partition, as fully as the Governor of the late province of Pennsylvania, or Commissioner of property, might or could have done.

President, &c. to sign warrants of acceptance, re-survey, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver-General shall, once in every month, pay into the hands of the Treasurer of this commonwealth, all monies which shall come into his hands by virtue of the said act, to which this is a supplement, which shall be subject to the disposal of the Legislature of this state, to whom he is to account once in every year.

Receiver-General to pay money to the State-Treasurer once in every month, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the rate of exchange, at which the Receiver-General shall receive the five pounds sterling for every hundred acres of land, shall and is hereby declared to be, at the rate of one hundred and sixty-six and two thirds of the currency of this state for one hundred pounds sterling.

Rate of exchange at which the Receiver-General is to receive the five pounds sterling.
