

1783.

Auctioneers appointed. [Repealed April 4th, 1785, chap. 1147,] but the appointment is now in the Governor.] Repealing clause.

[SECT. VI. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That John Bayard, William Brown, and Alexander Boyd, shall continue to do and execute the duty of auctioneer, respectively, as they have heretofore done, until the end of the next sitting of this House, or until they shall, by their resolution, otherwise direct or appoint.]

SECT. VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the act aforesaid, passed the twenty-third day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, as is altered or supplied by this act, be, and the same is hereby, repealed and made void.

Passed 9th December, 1783.—Recorded in Law Book No. II. page 223.

CHAPTER MLV.

An ACT to establish a ferry over the Monongahela and Youghiogony rivers, and to vest the right in John M. Kee, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

[THIS ferry is near the mouth of Youghiogony, to be at all times kept in good order and repair, fit for men, horses and carriages to pass and repass, with good and substantial boats, and capable and good ferrymen, and to be subject to such rates, rules and regulations as the Legislature should in future direct.]

Passed 5th February, 1784.—Private Act.—Recorded in Law Book No. II. page 230.

CHAPTER MLVII.

An ACT for annexing part of Westmoreland county to the county of Fayette.

SECT. I. WHEREAS the inhabitants of that part of Westmoreland county, circumscribed by Fayette county on the west, on the east by part of Bedford county, and on the north by part of Westmoreland county, have represented to the Assembly of this commonwealth, by their petition, the remote distance they may be left from the seat of justice, and the inconsiderable size of the new county: For remedy whereof,

SECT. II. Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That all that part of Westmoreland county, beginning at the mouth of Jacob's creek, thence up the main branch of the said creek, to Cherry's mill, thence along the road leading to Jones's mill, until the same shall intersect the line of Bedford county, thence south-westerly, by the line of Bedford county aforesaid, until the same intersects the Youghiogony river, thence down the said river to the place of beginning, be, and the same is hereby, annexed to the Boundaries described.
